Your Rights and Responsibilities

Before you complete an application for unemployment benefits, it is important that you understand that you have rights and responsibilities regarding collecting unemployment benefits.

You will be receiving a Monetary Determination in the mail. Read it carefully. It provides you with the following information:

- If you meet the monetary requirements to establish a claim,
 - Your Weekly Benefit Amount (WBA), number of weeks allowed, and the calculations involved,
 - Whether you are required to search for work in order to collect benefits,
 - How to protest your Monetary Determination if you do not agree,
 - If you need to provide additional information.

Protect your rights. Read and follow the instructions in any pamphlets, documents, or correspondence sent to you by the Unemployment Insurance Agency (UIA).

- At times you may be asked to provide a document or complete a form and return it within 10 days. Failure to provide the requested information could affect your right to benefits.
 - Remember to put your Social Security number or Letter ID and your name on all information or documents that you send to the UIA.
 - In accordance with Section 62 of the Michigan Employment Security Act, UIA may require repayment of benefits up to 3 years after the first benefit payment was issued; therefore, you are advised to keep your address up to date with UIA for up to 3 years after your last benefit payment.
 - If you reside in another state or are moving out of Michigan within the next three weeks, you must register for work, unless otherwise waived, with the state employment service provider in your new state of residence. You must register, unless otherwise waived, for work timely or you may not receive unemployment benefits.
 - To claim benefits, you must certify using Form UIA 1785, Bi-Weekly Paper Certification, that you can get online. You must certify every two weeks to claim your unemployment benefits for the previous two weeks.

All information requested on this DUA application and other DUA forms is voluntary but is required in order to promptly process your claim. The request for information is authorized under Section 410 of the Robert T. Stafford Relief and Emergency Assistance Act. All information furnished will be confidential, except to the extent that release is authorized in the processing of your claim. Such information will not be used for any purpose other than establishing your entitlement to DUA, for statistical and research purposes by the UIA and the U.S. Department of Labor (USDOL), and to ensure that benefits have been paid thoroughly.

I hereby apply for Disaster Unemployment Assistance (DUA) for the period of unemployment resulting from the announced disaster beginning June 25-26, 2021. The disaster caused me to become unemployed for the following reason (Write in your response below):

I certify that the information I have given on this form is correct to the best of my knowledge and belief. I have supplied the information voluntarily in order to obtain Disaster Unemployment Assistance. I know that federal funds are provided and that penalties are prescribed by law for willful misrepresentation or concealment of material facts in order to obtain assistance payments which I am not entitled to receive under the Robert T. Stafford Disaster Relief and Emergency Assistance Act. I have read the statement required under the Privacy Act of 1974 for use in the Disaster Unemployment Assistance Program.

Date

This form needs to be mailed and received by August 23, 2021, to Unemployment Insurance Agency, Multi-Service Center, 9023 Joseph Campau, Hamtramck, MI 48212.

¹Unemployment Insurance Agency (UIA) must confirm your status with the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) in order to process your claim. The Immigration Reform and Control Act (IRCA) precludes USCIS from using, publishing, or making available information related to your application for adjustment to temporary residence except as provided by law (confidentiality provision).

²You are allowed $6.00 for each dependent, up to a maximum of 5 dependents. Even if dependents are allowed, your Weekly Benefit Amount cannot exceed $362.00. Do not claim yourself as a dependent. To claim a person as a dependent, you must have provided more than half the cost of his or her support for at least 90 days immediately before filing your claim. If the marital or parental relationship has existed less than 90 days, the person must have received more than half the cost of his or her support from you for the duration of the marital or parental relationship.

- You can claim your husband or wife.
- You can claim your child, adopted child, stepchild, or grandchild, orphaned brother or sister if under the age of 18 years, or under the age of 22 if enrolled full-time in school, or if the child is over age 18 and is unable to engage in employment because of a physical or mental infirmity.
- You can claim your legal father and/or mother, if over the age of 65 or permanently disabled.
- You can claim a person as a dependent even if you do not claim that person for income tax purposes. However, only one person may claim the same person as a dependent for unemployment benefit purposes.

Verification of dependents may be required.

³If you choose to have State and Federal taxes withheld from your benefits, 10% will be deducted for Federal taxes. The deduction for State taxes is based on the number of exemptions you claim.

⁴At the time you were separated from work, your employer may have provided you with the Employer Account Number. The number is 10 digits formatted as 1234567 000.

⁵1-Assault & Battery: This means you were fired for touching, threatening, or attempting to inflict harm to another person.

2-Deliberate Destruction of Property: This means you were fired for intentionally damaging company property.

3-Fired: This means you were let go or discharged by your employer for violation of company policy, attendance, poor job performance, or other reasons.

4-Holiday Break: This means you are not working your usual hours because the company is closed for a holiday.

5-Hours Reduced: This means you are not working enough hours each week to be considered full-time. The employer determines your full-time or part-time status as an employee. You are currently not working enough hours to be considered a full-time employee.

6-Illegal Drugs: This means you were fired for using or possessing a controlled substance while at work, testing positive for an illegal substance, or you refused to submit to a drug test.

7-Imprisonment: This means you were fired because you missed work due to being in jail or prison. If your conviction was for a traffic violation and you were absent from work for less than 10 consecutive days, your separation reason is not Imprisonment and you need to change your answer.

8-Intoxication: This means you were fired for being under the influence of alcohol while at work or testing positive for alcohol.

9-Labor Dispute (Strike): This means you are involved in a work stoppage or withdrawal of services that has been coordinated by your bargaining representative (union) concerning your terms of hire or other working conditions.

10-Laid Off: This means you are not working because of a reduction in the work force, plant shut down, or the company closed.

11-Leave of Absence: This means you requested time off from work for medical reasons, family obligations, or other reasons. You are still employed with this employer but are not working.

12-Quit: This means you resigned or left your job for medical, personal, or work related reasons or you left to accept work with another employer.

13-Retired: The means you voluntarily or involuntarily left work and were qualified to leave on the basis of attained age, length of service, contract agreement, company policy, or disability.

14-Still Working with No Reduction in Hours: This means there has been no break in your employment and you are still working full-time hours each week.

15-Suspended/Disciplinary: This means you are still employed with this employer but not working for disciplinary reasons.

16-Temporary Shut Down: This means you are not working your usual hours because the company or plant is closed for a short period of time and you are temporarily laid off.

17-Theft: This means you were fired for the unauthorized removal of employer property.
