

SUMMER READING 2014-2017

A quick glance at Summer Reading Programs in Michigan over the past few years

LOOKING BACK

What are libraries tracking during summer reading programs?

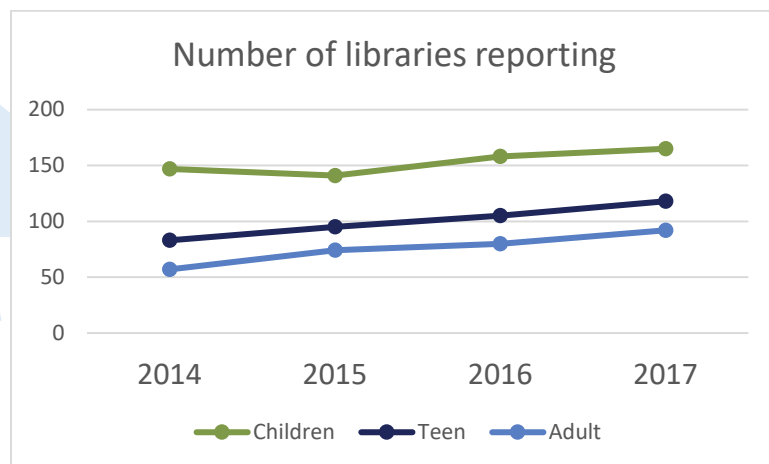

Books read (37.47%),
Hours (20.33%),
Minutes (22.01%),
Other (20.19%)

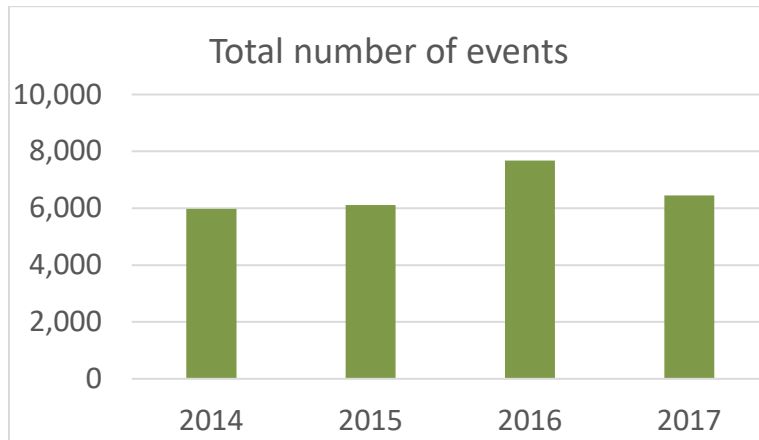

2017 SNAPSHOT

42% of readers met the minimum reading goal for 2017.

Number of libraries reporting their summer reading results

Number of summer reading events being held

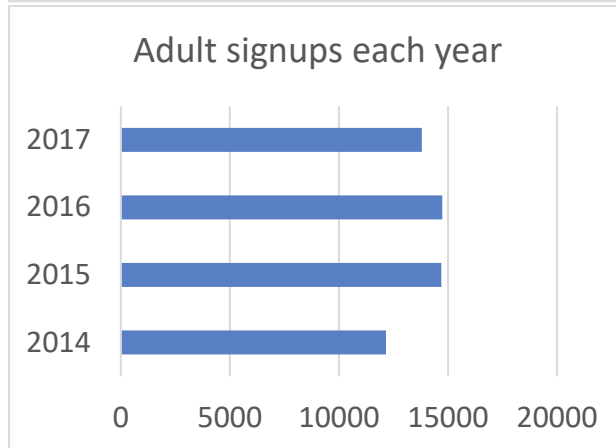

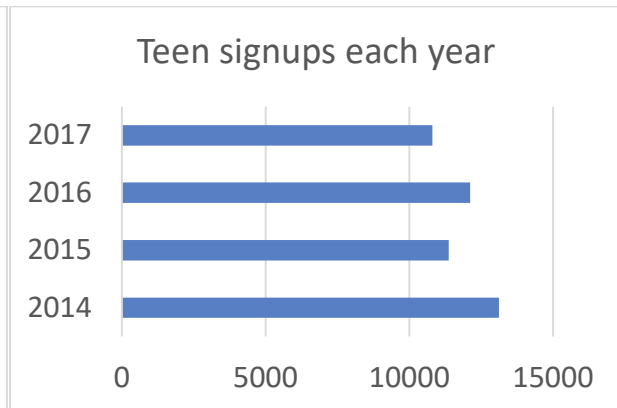

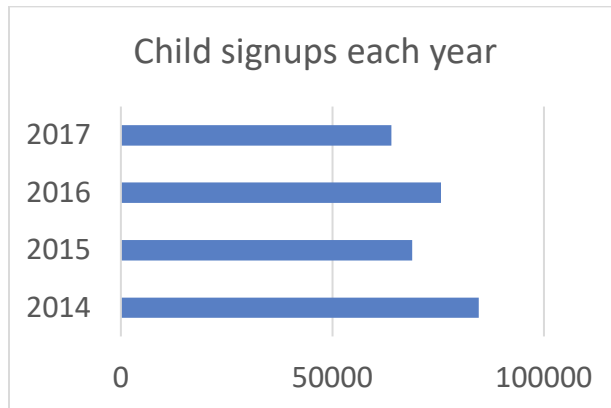

2017 SNAPSHOT

205,989

Michiganders attended summer reading events in 2017.

Number of summer reading signups by age

These numbers do not cover the libraries who do not track summer reading sign-ups, as well as those who have intergenerational programs. There seems to be a growing interest in ageless programming, and may be something we look towards tracking in the future.

Credits

This information is provided by the Library of Michigan, a part of the Michigan Department of Education.