

Arizona State University Police Department: <https://cfo.asu.edu/police-recruitment>

Now Hiring: Lateral/Sworn Officers and Police Officer Recruits (paid academy training)

Pay: Laterals start at $48,303 and Recruits start at $44,135

Contact: Sue Simmerman, Police Personnel Recruiter Sue.Simmerman@asu.edu

The ASU Police Department is a full-service internationally accredited law enforcement agency that encompasses the following areas:

- On-site communications center
- Investigations unit
- Crime prevention unit
- Training unit
- Police aide program

Ensuring the safety of the ASU community requires dedicated individuals who are sensitive to its diverse needs. When addressing the issues that we face, we encourage a partnership approach; maintaining a safe and secure environment is everyone's responsibility. ASU has four campus locations in the greater Phoenix area servicing 77,000+ students and 12,000+ employees. Each community may be likened to a city within a city.

Benefits include:

- A 3 day work week
- Tuition waivers for Officers and their dependents at any of Arizona's three state universities
- Provision of uniforms, weapons and equipment
- Workout facility in the department with opportunities to work out while on duty
- Participation in the State of Arizona's Public Safety Personnel Retirement System
- Unlimited opportunities to enjoy ASU's vibrant community that includes PAC 12 sports, entertainment, and educational events
- Lots of sunshine with no snow or ice!

Application materials must be submitted at www.asu.edu/asujobs . Follow the links for Staff Positions/External Applicants/Search Openings, and type "police" in the Job Title field.