

Santa Fe, NM Police - Accepting Applications for Laterals and Cadets

The Santa Fe Police Department in New Mexico is now accepting applications for its next cadet class as well as laterals. Interested applicants should visit the Santa Fe website at <http://www.santafenm.gov/index.aspx?NID=284>. Information at the site includes an online of the application process, a list of minimum requirements, a downloadable application form with a list of supporting documents required, physical standards requirements and a list of the following testing dates, times and location:

- Saturday-Sunday, October 5th-6th, 2013 - 8:00 a.m. - until we're done.
Wayne County Police Training Academy
31777 Industrial Road
Livonia, MI 48150

If more information is needed after visiting the website, applicants can email Lt. Sean Strahon at sfstrahon@santafenm.gov or call 505-955-5007 or 505-955-5166.

Online applications on the Santa Fe Human Resource site are preferred, but we will accept filled out PDF applications from the recruiting website at the door with a valid driver's license and educational documentation.

Laterals with more than one year of experience are exempt from the physical portion and hire date will be after the background, medical, psychological, polygraph and Chief's interview.

Certified officers with less than a year of experience are still eligible for the New Mexico cert by waiver, but will start at cadet pay instead of lateral pay.

The next cadet class is scheduled to begin in January of 2014. Cadet tentative hire date will be December 9th.
