

APPLICATION OF THE SPDAT TO VARIOUS PRESENTING ISSUES:

Self-care and Daily Living Skills

1. Doug lives next door to a coffee shop. He uses the coffee shop's bathroom to wash up and take care of daily functions. His own bathroom is unusable ever since he moved a pile of clothes into the room about a year ago. What score in the Self-Care and Daily Living Skills section of the SPDAT best describes Doug?

2. Donna told you she was a “neat freak” before you housed her. When you helped her move in, she was working alongside you to scrub and clean her apartment. Over the past month or so, she has been feeling depressed. Dishes have been piling in the sink. A garbage pile is growing in one corner of the kitchen. She seems to be wearing the same pajamas each time you visit with her. What score in the Self-Care and Daily Living Skills section of the SPDAT best describes Donna?

3. Ivan keeps his apartment impeccably clean. His dishes are always washed. He has clean clothes in his drawers. He undertakes grocery shopping successfully. He has access to laundry facilities. He bathes daily. Ivan has a “lucky” pair of underpants, socks, jeans and t-shirt which he wears daily. He does not wash them. They are dirty, smelly and threadbare. He worries that putting on other clothes will result in his luck running out and losing his apartment. What score in the Self-Care and Daily Living Skills section of the SPDAT best describes Ivan?

4. Suzie wears a different outfit each time you meet with her. She likes to show you the new things she has picked up at the Thrift Clothing Store each time you visit her. Meanwhile, piles of dirty clothes, over the past few months, have expanded outside of her bedroom and into the hallway. You have offered to help her with laundry, and she declines your offer every time saying she will take care of it when she is ready to do so. What score in the Self-Care and Daily Living Skills section of the SPDAT best describes Suzie?

5. Michael keeps his place very tidy. He cleans up promptly after meals. He puts everything away after it has been used. There are never dishes in the sink. All the same, he tells you of problems with different pests – ants, roaches, mice – that he says he sees frequently and does his best to take care of them. You have never seen any of the pests, though you have seen insect and mouse traps. What score in the Self-Care and Daily Living Skills section of the SPDAT best describes Michael?

8. Carson loves his laptop. He is a self-described Twitter and Facebook addict. He takes pictures in the community and posts them on Flickr. He spends at least an hour per day on the Star Trek chat room. He attends two online AA meetings per day and takes great pride that he helps facilitate four of the online AA sessions each week. Very happy with his frugality and ability to find a bargain, Carson uses Kijiji, eBay, GroupOn and other services to find the best possible prices for the things he needs. Carson’s community is entirely online. What score in the Meaningful Daily Activity section of the SPDAT best describes Carson?

Social Relationships and Networks

11. Debbie belongs to a sex worker support group. They meet at least once a week to talk about their work, safety, bad dates, etc. and have been doing so for almost a year. Debbie considers these people to be like sisters to her. When she does escort, she most frequently is with another lady from the support group, and they will often grab a coffee after a date and chat. Even when not working, these ladies are the people that Debbie is most likely to go shopping with, hang out with or watch a movie with. While only an occasional drug user, Debbie will only get high with these people. Debbie believes these are the best friends for her because they understand her without judgment. 13. Keith meets up with the same group of people, more or less, at around 5pm Monday through Saturday at the same pub. He knows their first names, a bit about what they do for a living, but otherwise spend a couple hours every day talking about sports, politics and the economy. He has been doing this for half a year. Every time a member of the group has suggested they do something else together like go to a game, go fishing, go to dinner or visit at their home, Keith politely declines. He does not want anything more than the relationship he currently has with them – at least not for now. What score in the Social Relationships and Networks section of the SPDAT best describes Keith?

14. Jean keeps to herself, and claims she has liked it that way since she lost her son more than a decade ago. She has refused all of your offers to help her join clubs or meet others with similar interests. When at appointments in the community she is impeccably polite and socially aware. She treats you with respect when you do home visits or accompany her in the community, and says you are the first person who has accepted her shyness. What score in the Social Relationships and Networks section of the SPDAT best describes Jean?

15. Oscar had been living alone for four months. Then his aunt and two cousins came from out of town to stay with him. Since that time Oscar has been disengaged from case planning and has steadily missed appointments. He says that he loves having his aunt around and his cousins too, though he can be frustrated when they drink his beer or eat his food. Occasionally he has called you after a big fight with them; but chalks the conflict up to being part of a “normal” family. What score in the Social Relationships and Networks section of the SPDAT best describes Oscar?

Mental Health and Wellness & Cognitive Functioning

16. Kim was told she was “slow” when she was in elementary school. She did not complete high school, and struggles to read beyond a Grade 4 level. A survivor, she has gravitated to others in her adult life that can help her get by day to day. Some roommates and boyfriends have taken advantage of her financially throughout the years, though most often the fact that she has been used has to be brought to her attention by her brother or a case worker. What score in the Mental Health and Wellness section of the SPDAT best describes Kim?

19. Alex moved into his apartment four months ago. Increasingly, when you visit him he tells you that the neighbors are trying to poison him by putting powder in his food when he isn't looking. He is also convinced that when renovations were occurring next door that the landlord put heat sensors and microphones in the walls to track his movements and listen in on his conversations. He would like you to find a new place for him to live where the apartment is made of brick or cinder blocks, without windows, and with a steel door. If you don't do it in the next couple of weeks, Alex says he will either be killed by the poison or be forced to kill himself so that people don't get the information they want out of him. What score in the Mental Health and Wellness section of the SPDAT best describes Alex?

Personal Administration and Money Management

36. Joseph was excited when he got his TV and cable. For the past three months he has raked up very large bills from movies and UFC pay per view. His aunt helped him pay off the first two but has vowed not to do it again. Joseph has stated he shouldn't have to pay for the movies and UFC because it is his girlfriend and friends that have been ordering them and not him. He thinks the cable company should send his girlfriend and other friends a bill – not him. Joseph is refusing to pay the bill. What score in the Personal Administration and Money Management section of the SPDAT best describes Joseph?

37. Marge has two adult children that both live with Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorder. Each month when she gets her cheque for $1,150 she pays her rent and utilities and turns the remainder of the money to her children. She says this is the least she can do for them given what she did to them. She relies on church donations and the food bank to get through the rest of the month. It is not uncommon near the end of the month for her to stretch one can of tuna out over three days. What score in the Personal Administration and Money Management section of the SPDAT best describes Marge?

43. Ann lived with Brian for several years. Brian would not let Ann work outside of the home. When the monthly cheque came in, Brian would have Ann sign it over to him so that he could manage their finances. Ann never had any money of her own to use as she chose. If ever she needed money, even for basic needs, she would have to ask Brian. The answer was frequently "no". Brian rarely let Ann go shopping alone, and if he did have her go out to get something, demanded to see the receipt and counted the change. Brian passed away two months ago, which caused Ann's homelessness. Ann says that she misses all that Brian did for her. What score in the Abuse and/or Trauma section of the SPDAT best describes Ann?
