

Michigan Commercial Laboratories Providing Food Testing Services*

| The following Commercial Testing Laboratories list was compiled in order to provide a list of firms that may conduct the types of analyses needed for testing foods. It is compiled from information provided by the listed labs or from advertising found on the Internet. Laboratories listed here may not provide testing services for individual consumers. Listing or omission does not imply endorsement or disapproval of analytical services. Your feedback is appreciated: if you have any information on updates to this list, please contact us at 1-800-292-3939. | |
