

Frank Lopez, Founder & Chairman

Francis Lopez, founder, Chairman and Greg Lopez, President/CEO of Aztec Manufacturing Corporation, is of Hispanic descent. Aztec is recognized as a minority owned business certified through the MMBDC. His educational background consists of a Bachelor of Science in Accounting, and various additional studies, including Economics, Business Law, SPC, QOS, and MBE completed at Tuck University at Dartmouth.

Mr. Lopez is committed to community involvement. His community participation spans many areas including membership with the following: Michigan Minority Business Development Council (MMBDC), Governor's Council on Labor and Economic Growth and the Center for Automotive Research (CAR), Environmental Research Institute of Michigan (ERIM) and the Center for Automotive Research (CAR). Frank is a Board Member with The Small Business Association of Michigan (SBAM), Southern Wayne County Chamber of Commerce, and the Michigan Hispanic Chamber of Commerce. Frank is also an executive board member of Michigan Works. On September 14, 2004 Frank was awarded the "Award of Excellence" by Michigan Works for his outstanding commitment to the success of Michigan's workforce development systems. Frank chairs the Southeast Michigan Community Alliance (SEMCA), and the Wayne-Monroe County Workforce Development Board. In 1995, Frank was Michigan's Delegate to the White House Conference on Small Business and was awarded Michigan Small Business Association Minority Small Businessperson of the Year. In 1997, Frank received the Salute to Excellence award from the Downriver Council for the Arts and the Hispanic Business Alliance award for leadership and dedication to the Hispanic community.

Frank Lopez believes success in business "requires a visionary entrepreneurial spirit, and the sound practice of business planning principles coupled with qualified personnel who have the practical, technical, and academic skills to get the job done." The people of Aztec Manufacturing Corporation share in his belief.
