

Talk Early

TALK
OFTEN

THE PARENT
CONNECTION
CONFERENCE

A conference for parents who want to gain knowledge and skills to communicate with their teens and work with other parents to support effective sex education.

The conference will include the following topics:

- The Adolescent Brain: UNDER Construction
- Sexually Transmitted Diseases - Know the Facts
- What's the Real Deal on Sex Ed in the Classroom?
- The "How To" on Talking to Teens about Abstinence and Sexuality
- Is Sexting, Texting, and Social Media Hurting your Teen?
- Sex Education for Special Needs Youth
- The "411" on Gay Youth
- Youth Panel - Find out what Teens are REALLY Thinking

Date: Saturday, March 2, 2013

Time: 8:00am-4:30pm

Location: VisTaTech Center at Schoolcraft College
18600 Haggerty Road
Livonia, MI 48152-2696

Registration Opens: December 1, 2012

Cost: $25 / $35 after January 14, 2013
Continental Breakfast and Lunch Included

Note: Conference is for parents of middle and high school youth

For additional conference information and to register, go to www.parentactionforhealthykids.org

Presented by Parent Action for Healthy Kids with support from the Michigan Department of Community Health and the Michigan Department of Education