

MICHIGAN CIVIL RIGHTS COMMISSION
Monday, November 19, 2018 ~ 3:00 P.M. – 7:45 P.M.
Larry K. Lewis Education Center, Northwest Campus
Wayne County Community College Detroit, 8200 W Outer Drive
Detroit, Michigan 48219

HEARING AND TESTIMONY ON EDUCATION & CIVIL RIGHTS

Monday, November 19, 2018

- Opening Remarks, Co-Chair Laura Reyes-Kopack (3:00 - 3:05 PM)

- Welcoming Remarks (3:05 – 3:15 PM)
 - Dr. Curtis Ivery, Chancellor, WCCCD
 - Michelle Fecteau, State Board of Education member

- Panel #1 (3:15 – 4:00 PM) (3-4 minutes per person opening remarks) focusing on challenges facing high school students in school settings. See attachment)
 - Approximately 12 high school or former high school students

Commissioner Q&A

- Panel #2 (4:00– 5:30 PM) challenges and opportunities facing K-12 education such as alternative schools, charter schools, virtual schools, and public schools in Detroit and Michigan.
 - Dan Quisenberry, President, Michigan Association of Public School Academies, Michigan’s Charter Schools
 - Superintendent Nikolai Vitti of Detroit Public Schools Community District
 - Erin Einhorn, Chalkbeat Detroit
 - Michael Addonizio, Professor, School of Education, WSU

Commissioner Q&A

- Break (5:30 – 5:45 P.M.)

- Panel #3 (5:45– 6:45 PM) challenges and opportunities for students (especially students of color or facing special needs/disabilities) when it comes to workforce development initiatives, Marshal Plan for Talent, EMC programs, CTE, etc. in Detroit and Michigan.
 - Chioke Mose Telesford, Deputy Director of Workforce Development, City of Detroit
 - Dr. Beverly Brown, Early Middle College Manager, MDE
 - Dr. Darienne Driver, President & CEO, United Way
 - Jeremy Hendges, Interim Director, TED

Commissioner Q&A

- Public Comment (6:45 – 7:45 P.M.) (2-3 minutes per person, depending on number of comment cards submitted)
- Adjournment