The Michigan State Police Law Enforcement Days

Saturday, November 9th & 23rd, 2013

10:00 a.m. - 2:00 p.m.

Downtown Campus • Multipurpose Room 236

1001 W. Fort Street • Detroit, MI 48226

These sessions will introduce career opportunities in the Michigan State Police law enforcement department by providing general information, and in-depth description of the various functions within the agency. A discussion involving ethics in law enforcement and behavioral trends will be reviewed.

Participants will:

- Be provided insight into various divisions within the State Police, i.e. forensics, SWAT, underwater, canine, etc.
- Have an opportunity to view through PowerPoint presentation the various techniques and skill required to become a member of the Michigan State Police.
- Discover the psychological advantages and disadvantage of a career in law enforcement at the state police level.

Open To the Public at No Cost!
