Michigan Students Selected for United States Senate Youth Program -- Students Headed to Washington, D. C. and to Receive $5,000 Scholarship--

Senators Carl Levin and Debbie Stabenow today announced the names of the two students who have been selected as delegates to the 50th Anniversary United States Senate Youth Program (USSYP) that will be held March 3 – 10, 2012 in Washington, D.C. Connor Rubin of Farmington Hills and Samantha Smith of Bay City were chosen from across the state to be part of the group of 104 student delegates who will attend the program's 50th Anniversary Washington Week.

The USSYP was created by Senate Resolution 324 in 1962 and has been sponsored by the Senate and fully funded by The Hearst Foundations since inception. Originally proposed by Senators Kuchel, Mansfield, Dirksen and Humphrey, the impetus for the program as stated in Senate testimony was "to increase young Americans' understanding of the interrelationships of the three branches of government, the caliber and responsibilities of federally elected and appointed officials, and the vital importance of democratic decision making not only for America but for people around the world."

Each year this extremely competitive merit-based program brings 104 of the most outstanding high school students — two from each state, the District of Columbia and the Department of Defense Education Activity — to Washington, D.C. for an intensive week-long study of the federal government and the people who lead it. The overall mission of the program is to help instill within each class of USSYP student delegates more profound knowledge of the American political process and a lifelong commitment to public service. In addition to the program week, The Hearst Foundations provide each of the 104 student delegates with a $5,000 undergraduate college scholarship with encouragement to continue coursework in government, history and public affairs. Transportation and all expenses for Washington Week are also provided by The Hearst Foundations, as stipulated in S.Res.324; no government funds are utilized.

Connor Rubin attends Harrison High School where he serves as secretary to the Student Council. In addition, Connor is vice president of DECA, and president of the local Gay Straight Alliance where he plans activities, fundraisers, and community outreach programs. To date, he is the only 11th grader to be elected as vice-president of his school's DECA chapter. Future goals include attending the University of Michigan for a degree in business administration with an emphasis in marketing. His graduate degree plans include attending Wayne State Law School and pursuing a career in criminal justice.

Samantha Smith attends Bay City Western High School where she serves as executive secretary to the Student Council. In addition, Samantha is chairwoman of the Bay Area Community Foundation's Youth Advisory Committee and was instrumental in establishing "Challenge Day," an anti-bullying program. During the summer she worked for the U.S. House of Representatives as a page. She has accumulated 950 community service hours and is currently enrolled in American constitutional law at Saginaw Valley State University. After receiving her undergraduate degree, she hopes to participate in Teach for America, educating students in Detroit Public Schools about government.

Chosen as alternates to the 2012 program were Rachel Groters, a resident of Sparta, who attends Sparta High School and Timothy Devine, a resident of Farmington Hills, who attends University of Detroit Jesuit High School.

The chief educational officer in each state selects the delegates after nomination by teachers and principals. This year's delegates were designated by Mr. Michael P. Flanagan, Superintendent of Public Instruction.

While in Washington the student delegates will attend meetings and briefings with Senators and Congressional staff, the President, a Justice of the Supreme Court, leaders of cabinet agencies, an Ambassador to the United States and top members of the national media. The students will also tour many of the national monuments and several museums and they will stay at the historic Mayflower Hotel in downtown Washington, D.C.

In addition to outstanding leadership abilities and a strong commitment to volunteer work, the student delegates rank academically in the top one percent of their states among high school juniors and seniors. Now more than 5,000 strong, alumni of the program continue to excel and develop impressive qualities that are often directed toward public service. Among the many distinguished alumni are: Senator Susan Collins, the first delegate to be elected U.S. Senator; New Jersey Governor Chris Christie, the first delegate to be elected governor; Congressman Cory Gardner, the first delegate to be elected to the U.S. House of Representatives; former Chief Judge Robert Henry, U.S. Court of Appeals for the Tenth Circuit; former Ambassador to West Germany Richard Burt, and former Presidential Advisors Thomas "Mack" McLarty and Karl Rove. Additional notables include former Lt. Governor of Idaho David LeRoy, former President of the Progressive Policy Institute Robert Shapiro, military officers, members of state legislatures, Foreign Service officers, top congressional staff, healthcare providers and university educators.

Members of the USSYP 2012 50th Anniversary Senate Advisory Committee are: Co-Chairs — Senator Jeff Bingaman of New Mexico and Senator Susan M. Collins of Maine. Advisory Committee — Senator Richard J. Durbin of Illinois, Senator Kirsten E. Gillibrand of New York, Senator Jeff Merkley of Oregon, Senator Barbara A. Mikulski of Maryland, Senator Mike Crapo of Idaho, Senator Johnny Isakson of Georgia, Senator Richard G. Lugar of Indiana and Senator Jeff Sessions of Alabama. Each year, the Honorary Co-Chairs of the program are the Senate Majority and Minority Leaders and the Vice President of the United States.
