Who are we?

Forum for Youth Investment

A nonprofit, nonpartisan action tank dedicated to helping communities and the nation make sure all young people are ready by 21 – ready for college, work and life.

David P. Weikart Center for Youth Program Quality

A division of the Forum for Youth Investment that empowers education and human service leaders to:

adapt, implement, and scale best-in-class, research validated quality improvement systems to advance child and youth development

Weikart Center History

- Weikart Center was the Youth Development group of HighScope Educational Research Foundation
- Best practices from the Institute for IDEAS, a summer camp for teens, were extracted and developed into training and eventually the Youth PQA.
- The Youth PQA is a validated instrument designed to assess the quality of youth programs and identify staff training needs rooted in 40 years of practice and research.

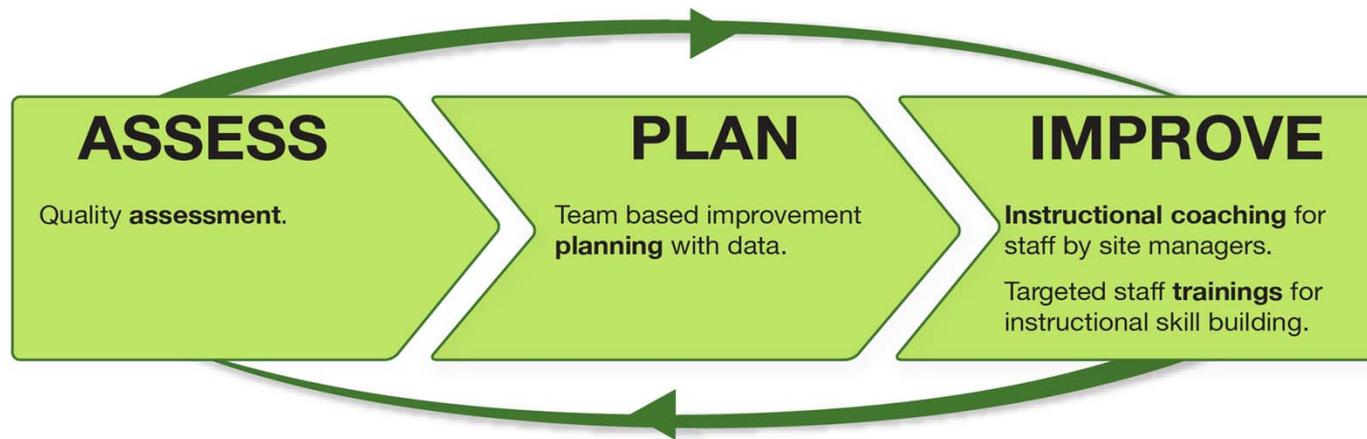

Weikart Center Practices

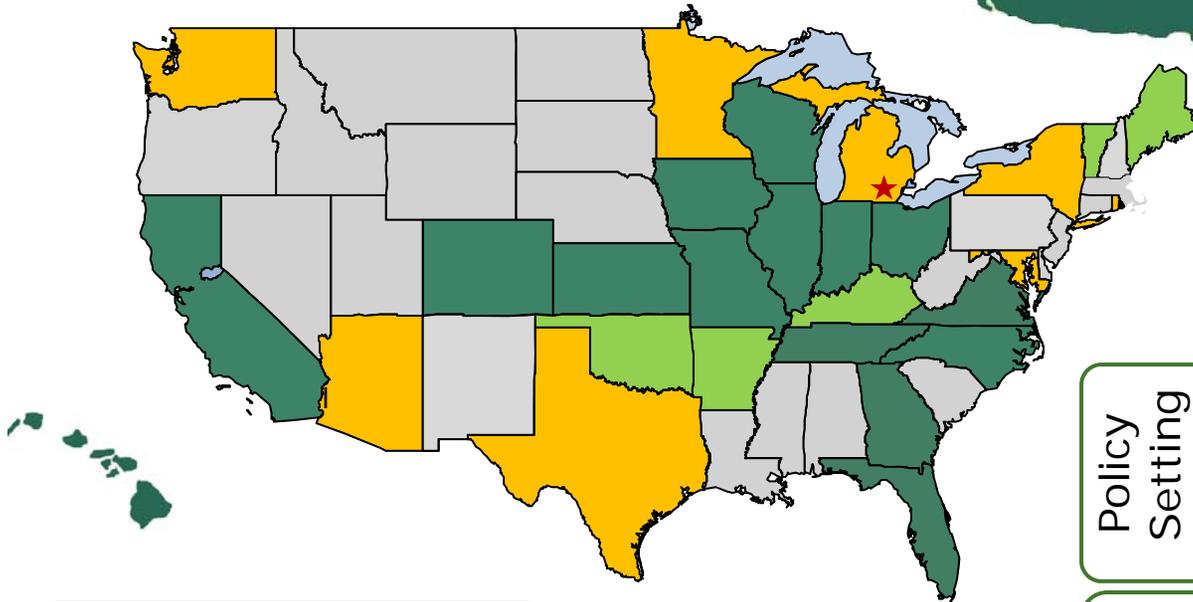

- Improving the quality of youth-serving education and human services settings
- Development, validation and demonstration of assessment-driven performance improvement
- Low-stakes accountability policies

Decade in the Making

Late 1990s – TA and quality assessment model developed in 2,000 MI School Readiness Classrooms (Preschool)

2003-2005 – Michigan Standards for OST; YPQA Self-Assessment piloted and mandated

2008 – Quality improvement planning and support from local evaluators mandated

2009 – TACSS begins

Why TACSS?
