EXPRESSING IDEAS

DIRECTIONS: Read the prompt. Complete your response to the prompt on the student answer document. Then, use the checklist to review and proofread your response.

Prompt: Describe a time when you cleaned up after yourself. Be sure to include at least two details and examples in your response.

CHECKLIST

DIRECTIONS: Use this checklist as you review and proofread your response to the prompt.

- Did I answer each part of the prompt?
- Did I support my ideas with details?
- Did I organize my ideas and details clearly?
- Did I review my response one more time to make sure it is just the way I want it?
- Did I put my response on the student answer document?

Scoring Rubric - Grades 3-8, and 11

	Writing	Drawing
4	The writing focuses on the topic. The topic may not be explicitly stated, but can be easily inferred by the reader. The text includes appropriate details and/or examples based on the student's prior knowledge and experience. There is a clear organizational structure with transitions between ideas, resulting in a unified whole. The writing demonstrates use of mostly precise word choice and syntax. Errors in language conventions (e.g., grammar, spelling, punctuation, and capitalization) do not interfere with understanding.	The drawing focuses on the topic. Pertinent details and/or examples based on the student's prior knowledge and experience are: (1) clearly present in the drawing; (2) present in the drawing and enhanced through written explanation by the student and/or transcribed oral explanation by the assessment administrator; or (3) provided solely through written and/or transcribed oral explanation. The visual text presents a logical organization and arrangement of figures. Errors in language and visual conventions (e.g., composition, perspective, shape, and clarity) do not interfere with understanding.
3	The writing is mostly on topic. The topic may not be explicitly stated, but can be inferred with little effort by the reader. There is some development of the topic with appropriate details and/or examples. The text reflects a mostly organized structure and may include transitions between ideas. The writing demonstrates some attention to word choice and syntax. Errors in language conventions (e.g., grammar, spelling, punctuation, and capitalization) may slightly interfere with understanding.	The drawing is mostly on topic. Some details and/or examples are (1) present in the drawing; (2) mostly present in the drawing and supported through written and/or transcribed oral explanation; or (3) are provided solely through written and/or transcribed oral explanation. The visual text presents an attempt at logical organization and arrangement of figures. Errors in language and visual conventions (e.g., composition, perspective, shape, and clarity) may slightly interfere with understanding.
2	The writing is somewhat on topic. If not explicitly stated, the topic may not be easily inferred. There is limited development with simplistic details and/or examples. The focus may wander. The writing lacks a clear organizational structure, and ideas may be repetitive. Errors in language conventions (e.g., grammar, spelling, punctuation, and capitalization) may make understanding difficult.	The drawing is somewhat on topic, but is developed with limited details and/or examples that are (1) present in the drawing; (2) present in the drawing and supported through minimal written and/or transcribed oral explanation; or (3) presented solely through minimal written and/or transcribed oral explanation. The visual text lacks a clear structure and arrangement of figures. Errors in language and visual conventions (e.g., composition, perspective, shape, and clarity) may make understanding difficult.
1	The writing shows some evidence of an attempt to respond to the prompt, although there is little or no development of the topic and little direction. The vocabulary may be limited to one or two words, not a complete sentence. The text may show minimal sound/letter correspondence and use of language conventions. Errors may make understanding nearly impossible.	The drawing shows some evidence of an attempt to respond to the prompt, yet it presents little or no development of the topic and is supported with little to no written or transcribed oral explanation. The visual text lacks direction or organization. Errors in language and/or visual conventions (e.g., composition, perspective, shape, and clarity) may make understanding nearly impossible.

Not ratable if: A – off topic

B – illegible

C – written in a language other than English

D – blank/refused to respond

ANCHOR PAPER 3Score Point: 1

This response about cleaning up Legos shows some evidence of an attempt to respond to the prompt, although there is little development of the topic. Errors in conventions make understanding nearly impossible.

I pick up my mas.
I pick up my toys.
I pick up my ball.
I pick up in room.

ANCHOR PAPER 4Score Point: 1

This response shows some evidence of an attempt to respond to the prompt by listing multiple things cleaned up (I pick up my toys, I pick up my ball). There is no development of the topic and little direction.

I like to do the dishes. I like to pecking up toys
in my bedroom.
I like to do
chorse at home.
I like to the living room table.

ANCHOR PAPER 5Score Point: 2

This response is somewhat on topic and lists multiple things cleaned up but shows limited development with simplistic details (I like to pecking up toys in my bedroom, I like to do chorse at home). With no introduction, conclusion, or transitions between ideas, the writing lacks a clear organizational structure.

ANCHOR PAPER 6*Score Point: 2

This response consists of a drawing only and is somewhat on topic. The response is developed with limited details that are present in the drawing and supported through minimal transcribed oral explanation (bed). The lines connecting items to be picked up to the figure and the circling of the same kind of item are attempts at logical organization. However, errors in language and visual conventions make understanding difficult.

Yes I do cleaned up after my self because I do it avey day and Some times I do cleaned up after my self gest for one day but I do cleaned up after my self avey day I reley do but I do it avey day and my mom tall me to take a bathe and I sind Yes I will but my biddy was so derthey So I took a bathe lastnit that I git so tixerl because I wit to band.

ANCHOR PAPER 7Score Point: 2

This response is somewhat on topic. The writing has limited development with simplistic details, and the focus wanders from cleaning every day to taking a bath to being tired after band. The writing lacks a clear organizational structure, with repetitive ideas (I do it avey day and some times...I do it avey day).

I clean up after lunch all by myself I pick up my lunch box and my container. I wipe the table with a wet wipe.

ANCHOR PAPER 8Score Point: 2

This response about cleaning up after lunch is somewhat on topic with a logical sequence of events but, overall, it has limited development with simplistic details (I pick up my lunch box, I wipe the table).

There is a clear organizational structure that includes a conclusion (Than Im done I be borde when I get done but I am happy) and transitions to order events (So, than), resulting in a unified whole. The writing demonstrates use of mostly precise word choice (starghting). The drawing has no effect on the score point.

I remember a time while playing with my doll that has a lot of pieces. I had to clean it up. First, I have to put her clothes back in her closet. I start with dresses first, then skirts and tops. After I put her clothes away in her closet, I put her motorcycle back in her garage. I grab her favorite brush and brush her hair out. I put her pajamas on and put her to bed in her room, which is my closet.

ANCHOR PAPER 16Score Point: 4

This response focuses on the topic of cleaning up after playing with a doll and includes many appropriate details (dresses first, motorcycle back in her garage, put her pajamas on). There is a clear organizational structure that includes an introduction (I remember a time while playing with my doll) and transitions (First, After), resulting in a unified whole. The writing demonstrates use of mostly precise word choice (peices, grab).
