- Did I put my response on the student answer document?

Scoring Rubric - Grades 3-8, and 11

	Writing	Drawing
4	The writing focuses on the topic. The topic may not be explicitly stated, but can be easily inferred by the reader. The text includes appropriate details and/or examples based on the student's prior knowledge and experience. There is a clear organizational structure with transitions between ideas, resulting in a unified whole. The writing demonstrates use of mostly precise word choice and syntax. Errors in language conventions (e.g., grammar, spelling, punctuation, and capitalization) do not interfere with understanding.	The drawing focuses on the topic. Pertinent details and/or examples based on the student's prior knowledge and experience are: (1) clearly present in the drawing; (2) present in the drawing and enhanced through written explanation by the student and/or transcribed oral explanation by the assessment administrator; or (3) provided solely through written and/or transcribed oral explanation. The visual text presents a logical organization and arrangement of figures. Errors in language and visual conventions (e.g., composition, perspective, shape, and clarity) do not interfere with understanding.
3	The writing is mostly on topic. The topic may not be explicitly stated, but can be inferred with little effort by the reader. There is some development of the topic with appropriate details and/or examples. The text reflects a mostly organized structure and may include transitions between ideas. The writing demonstrates some attention to word choice and syntax. Errors in language conventions (e.g., grammar, spelling, punctuation, and capitalization) may slightly interfere with understanding.	The drawing is mostly on topic. Some details and/or examples are (1) present in the drawing; (2) mostly present in the drawing and supported through written and/or transcribed oral explanation; or (3) are provided solely through written and/or transcribed oral explanation. The visual text presents an attempt at logical organization and arrangement of figures. Errors in language and visual conventions (e.g., composition, perspective, shape, and clarity) may slightly interfere with understanding.
2	The writing is somewhat on topic. If not explicitly stated, the topic may not be easily inferred. There is limited development with simplistic details and/or examples. The focus may wander. The writing lacks a clear organizational structure, and ideas may be repetitive. Errors in language conventions (e.g., grammar, spelling, punctuation, and capitalization) may make understanding difficult.	The drawing is somewhat on topic, but is developed with limited details and/or examples that are (1) present in the drawing; (2) present in the drawing and supported through minimal written and/or transcribed oral explanation; or (3) presented solely through minimal written and/or transcribed oral explanation. The visual text lacks a clear structure and arrangement of figures. Errors in language and visual conventions (e.g., composition, perspective, shape, and clarity) may make understanding difficult.
1	The writing shows some evidence of an attempt to respond to the prompt, although there is little or no development of the topic and little direction. The vocabulary may be limited to one or two words, not a complete sentence. The text may show minimal sound/letter correspondence and use of language conventions. Errors may make understanding nearly impossible.	The drawing shows some evidence of an attempt to respond to the prompt, yet it presents little or no development of the topic and is supported with little to no written or transcribed oral explanation. The visual text lacks direction or organization. Errors in language and/or visual conventions (e.g., composition, perspective, shape, and clarity) may make understanding nearly impossible.

Not ratable if: A – off topic

B – illegible

C – written in a language other than English

D – blank/refused to respond

HUNTER LEVI JOE CONNOR

MADDIE LIZ JON JONNY

ANCHOR PAPER 1Score Point: 1

This response shows some evidence of an attempt to respond to the prompt with a random list of names of friends (Hunter, Levi, Jonny), but the topic is not developed with details describing what the writer likes to do with a friend.

Me and Jaylyn like to go to the park

ANCHOR PAPER 2Score Point: 1

This response shows some evidence of an attempt to respond to the prompt. This response is a complete thought, but it is not developed beyond the name of the friend and where they like to go.

Me and my friend Jacob play
'Call of Duty Black ops 3' together.

ANCHOR PAPER 3Score Point: 1

This response shows some evidence of an attempt to respond to the prompt by mentioning the game (Call of Duty Black ops 3) that the writer and a friend played together, although there is little development of the topic. The drawing does not provide enough additional development or detail to elevate the score.

Karree is my friend we Play with barbies together.

ANCHOR PAPER 4Score Point: 1

Although this brief response shows some evidence of an attempt to answer the prompt with one detail (we play with barbies together), there is no further development of the topic.

ANCHOR PAPER 7

Score Point: 2

This response of a list of activities that the writer and his friend like to do together (We like to play, We talk on the phone) is somewhat on topic. The list, without an introduction, a conclusion, or transitions to connect the ideas, reflects a lack of a clear organizational structure.

Audrey let me stay the night and we watched movies had a little bit of ice cream and went to the park she is really nice

ANCHOR PAPER 8Score Point: 2

This brief response about staying the night at Audrey's house has limited development, and only simplistic details are provided (we watched movies, she is really nice). Without an introduction or any transitions, the writing lacks a clear organizational structure.

If omitted, initial here: _____

ANCHOR PAPER 13

Score Point: 4

This response focuses on the topic. The text is developed and includes appropriate details (Alvin and the Chipmunks, play his 2K16 games on his Xbox one). There is a clear organizational structure that uses a variety of transitions to order the activities chronologically (First, Next, Finally) and a conclusion (had so much fun).

One of my best friends is Koven
he live down the street from me it take 15 seconds to get to his house.
He's like family because we do a lot of things together. When we get back home from school we play the game together on black ops 3 on the ps4. On fridays we go to places like M.J.R. After friday when its saturday we play the game until like three o'clock in the morning. When its sunday we both go to the Handwritten, initial here.

Same church then on monday we go back to school.

ANCHOR PAPER 14Score Point: 4

This response about a best friend focuses on the topic of what the writer and his friend do together. It includes many appropriate details (we play the game together on black ops 3 on the ps4; we go to places like MJR) and is clearly organized with an introduction, varied transitional phrases (When we get back home from school, After friday, then on Monday), and a conclusion, resulting in a unified whole.

My friend's name is Trevor. I like Trevor because he likes stuff I like, he is funny, and he is smart. Trevor and I play basketball, soccer and baseball at his house. We also like to eat a lot of food like pizza, steak, chicken, and beef. But most of all we like desserts like ice cream, cookies, and shakes. We even like to go to the park and ride bikes and scooters.

Trevor and I have a lot of fun together. The more we play sports the better we get at sports. We also have fun eating a lot of food. I hope we can be friends forever. I hope we have more time like that again.

Handwritten, initial here: _____

ANCHOR PAPER 15Score Point: 4

This response, describing details about a friend Trevor, focuses on the topic. The text includes appropriate details based on the student's prior knowledge and experience (eat a lot of food like pizza...beef; desserts like ice cream, cookies, and shakes). There is a clear organizational structure with an introduction, a conclusion, and a logical progression of ideas, resulting in a unified whole.

My best friend is more like a brother to me but sadly I moved and he lives in Texas.

I remember right after school we would walk around, play video games, go to the park, or just hang out and talk. He has been at my side since day one. He helped me through everything I love him like he's family. To this day we still talk my other "friends" were not there for me at all. Me and him both have the same goal in life being the greatest friends to everyone and the best person we can be. I love my brother more then anything on this earth and I honestly —

don't know what I would do without him.

ANCHOR PAPER 16Score Point: 4

This response about a friend who is more “like a brother” to the writer is focused on the topic and includes many appropriate details (right after school we would walk around, play video games, …or just hang out and talk). It is clearly organized with an introduction (My best friend is more like a brother to me) and a conclusion (I love my brother more than anything on this earth and I honestly don’t know what I would do without him), resulting in a unified whole.
