English Learner Outcome Reports & Data Tools Overview

Introduction

English Learner (EL) students are those students who are acquiring proficiency in the English Language. This document lists, describes, provides links to, and shows the availability of the various reporting and data tools offered to support EL students. Additionally, the last two sections of this document provide state of Michigan websites and contact information that can be used to get more information about the supports provided to EL students in Michigan.

EL Outcome Reports & Data Tools Availability

The table below lists the EL reports and data tools grouped by whether they are available publicly or only to secure, authorized users and whether they provide individual student or aggregate data (e.g., counts, average scores, etc.). The table also shows whether the report or data tool is available for districts, schools, and different sizes of EL programs.

For descriptions and locations of each report and data tool, please see later sections of this document.

Please note: All public reporting is limited to groups of students with 10 or more students to protect student privacy as required by federal law (Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act; FERPA).
