MEMORANDUM

DATE: January 17, 2019

TO: Local and Intermediate School District Superintendents
Public School Academy Directors

FROM: Sheila A. Alles
Interim State Superintendent

SUBJECT: Equitable Services Training

The Michigan Department of Education is pleased to announce the 2019 Equitable Service Training scheduled at various locations around the state in February and March.

This three-hour training will:

- Review the consultation process between Local Education Agencies and private schools
- Provide updated information on Federal title monies and requirements along with allowable services examples under each category
- Review the procedure and tools for sending private school interest letters and confirming registration of private school
- Early childhood and after school services

School districts and the private schools that receive services are encouraged to attend.
