

ELIZABETH HONEYSETT

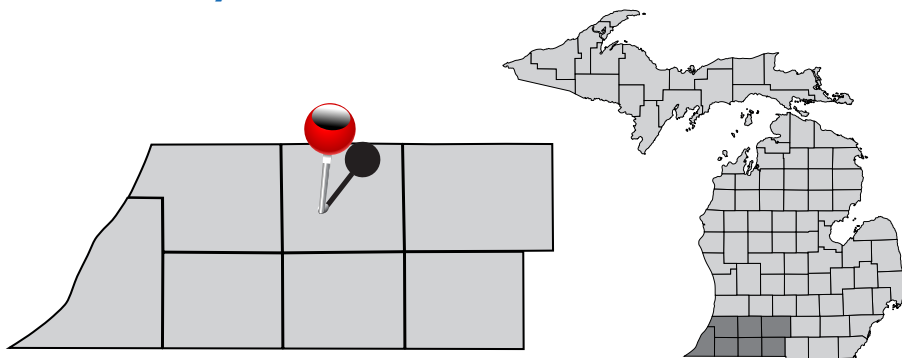

Region 7 Teacher of the Year

PORTAGE CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL

BIO

Elizabeth Honeysett has been an art educator for 16 years. Liz believes all students should have access to quality materials and resources. She has written and received grants for a variety of items to bolster student success, including a kiln and advanced technology in the form of 3D printing. Liz is committed to helping others to grow professionally as well. She has presented at multiple state art education conferences and at the national NAEA conference. She was also invited to be a guest lecturer at Michigan State University in 2018. Liz is a trained Lincoln Center Aesthetic Educator and a certified mental health first responder. She was a founding member of the Diversity Awareness and Leadership Team and is currently in the Centennial School Improvement Team. She has also served as the Link Crew advisor, forensics coach, and yearbook advisor. Liz is also the production manager for the Portage Central High School Theater Department, and is responsible for coordinating a variety of technical aspects for every production and manages over 40 students working behind the scenes.
