

Pupil Transportation Advisory Practices and Guidelines

Listed below are items termed as advisory practices and guidelines. These practices and guidelines are good ideas and, in some cases address issues identified nationally, as significant. They are not supported by law in Michigan but are included to provide direction and guidance to school transportation operations in moving forward for the purposes of continuous improvement, as your district resources allow.