GOALS & STRATEGIES

TOP 10 IN 10 YEARS

putting Michigan on the map as a premier education state

THE RIGHT TO EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITY

To realize Michigan becoming a Top 10 education state in 10 years, the long-term embrace to the existing structure and system of education needs to be challenged and reshaped, giving everyone an opportunity to succeed – from the students, to the educators, parents, and business community.

No matter where students live, they should have access to the same high-quality educational opportunities as any other student in Michigan. Likewise, teachers across the state should have equitable opportunities to learn and excel in their profession no matter where they live and teach.

Michigan must ensure that each and every child can read and do math, be a creative thinker and problem-solver, and be an informed, open-minded, and engaged citizen in our society. To become a Top 10 education state, Michigan needs to create a coherent system with a challenging curriculum, then give it ample time to work.

We must recognize that Poverty Matters – not to be used as an excuse, but as a purpose to design a Michigan system of education that motivates and excites all children about learning, keeps them in school, and provides them with hope and knowledge for a successful future.

Michigan must establish an educational system that grants indelible rights for all education stakeholders to succeed – a system focused more on what is best for children and their learning, and less on governance. The debate of school governance too often is the canvas that shrouds the real purpose of education opportunity.

This framework is a vision of the goals and strategies needed to propel Michigan to be a Top 10 state, developed with input from education stakeholders across the spectrum of the state. A more detailed Action Plan now will be developed that sets forth timelines, implementation, and measures of success.

TOP 10 IN 10 YEARS

putting Michigan on the map as a premier education state

GUIDING PRINCIPLES

- To be successful at becoming a Top 10 performing state in 10 years, Michigan must develop a coherent and cohesive strategy for the children, and implement that plan with continuity for multiple years. Education reform takes time; we must implement, use evidence and data to correct course, and continue with progress on key goals.
 - A “Can-Do Culture” that focuses on student-directed learning and student outcomes, and the work on the instruction must take priority.
 - Data and accountability will be used to help drive resources and focus improvement activities for students and educators. Attention will be on transparency in support of key goals for the entire system to make Michigan a Top 10 state for education.
 - Poverty matters, not to be used as an excuse, but as a purpose to design a Michigan system of education that motivates and excites all children about learning, keeps them in school, and provides them with hope and knowledge for a successful future.

In response to a request for suggestions on how to make Michigan a Top 10 state for education within the next 10 years, the Michigan Department of Education (MDE) and State Board of Education (SBE) received input from numerous stakeholders groups, education partners, and individual citizens.

This valuable information was provided via formal presentations to the SBE, written submissions, one-on-one and group meetings with the State Superintendent, and through more than 750 responses collected through a dedicated website.

To realize Michigan becoming a Top 10 education state within the next 10 years, the existing structure and system of education must be challenged and reshaped. Michigan must establish an educational system that grants indelible rights for all stakeholders to succeed – a system focused more on what is best for children and their learning.

This is a framework of the strategic goals necessary to move Michigan forward.

STRATEGIC GOALS

1 Provide every child access to an aligned, high-quality P-20 system from early childhood to post-secondary attainment – through a multi-stakeholder collaboration with business and industry, labor, and higher education—to maximize lifetime learning and success.

“Principals are pleased to see that Michigan’s Top 10 in 10 goals are instructionally focused and centered around increasing student achievement.”

Wendy Zdeb, Executive Director, Michigan Association of Secondary School Principals

Goal 2

Goal 2: Implement, with strong district and building leadership, high-quality instruction in every classroom through a highly coherent, child-centered instructional model where students meet their self-determined academic and personal goals to their highest potential.

STRATEGIES

Strategy 2.7: Ensure that all P-12 students are able to access and utilize information supports and technologies as learning tools throughout their learning experience.

- a) Ensure that all students have access to libraries and media centers within their school, district, and/or community. Ensure that such resources are appropriately staffed to ensure system integrity.
- b) Ensure that all students have access to personalized learning technologies that can be used by the learner to enhance and support learning wherever possible.

Strategy 2.8: Provide an integrated system of guidance to develop and support district and school leadership competencies, to accelerate student achievement, including:

“Making Michigan a top ten education state will require strong leadership, a deep commitment to accountability and capacity-building, and an unwavering focus on what all Michigan students need to succeed. We hope this is the first step toward a better direction for Michigan students’ future.”

Amber Arellano, Executive Director, The Education Trust-Midwest

Goal 3: Develop, support, and sustain a high-quality, prepared, and collaborative education workforce.

STRATEGIES

Strategy 3.1: Identify each component of the entire educator pipeline. The term “educator” includes all roles in the education workforce – teachers, principals, administration, support staff, counselors, etc. This pipeline includes recruitment, preparation, placement, mentoring and induction, evaluation, and ongoing professional development. Two important components of this pipeline that will be addressed are:

- a) Development of a new system of training and induction for educators, based on the model of novice, practicing, and master levels. This model will enhance the mentoring and induction process and also will leverage Michigan’s existing teaching talent by utilizing exemplary educators who can serve as coaches and mentors of other educators.
- b) Implementation of Michigan’s educator evaluation law with fidelity, with an emphasis on continuous improvement and support for educators; delivering high-quality, standards-aligned professional development that is targeted based on individual educator needs; and ensuring a focus on high quality instructional practice and instructional leadership.

Strategy 3.2: Coherent, state- and district-provided professional development, jointly developed with educators.

- a) Major initiatives (such as early literacy, educator evaluations, assessment literacy, and curriculum alignment) will utilize a professional development plan that includes statewide deployment of high-quality professional development to all educators.
- b) All MDE-funded activities that take place on a local or regional level will require a professional learning plan that is aligned to Michigan’s professional learning standards.

Strategy 3.3: Fully implement “Michigan’s Plan to Ensure Equitable Access to Excellent Educators” that includes:

- a) Initiatives and interventions designed to attract and retain quality educators in high-needs schools and districts.
- b) Strategic research and evaluation activities to identify shortages in the educator workforce and formulate plans to address them.
- c) Identify areas where additional incentives or supports are needed in the education workforce and develop policies or programs to meet this need.

“Top performing states invest strategically and consistently in the main drivers of achievement: high expectations for all students; excellent teaching sustained by strong support and professional development; early childhood education; making sure all student get great college and career guidance, and get started earning post-secondary credits while in high school; put more resources behind students that due to poverty have further to travel, and hold all schools accountable for quality.”

John Austin, President, State Board of Education

Goal 3

Goal 3: Develop, support, and sustain a high-quality, prepared, and collaborative education workforce.

STRATEGIES

Strategy 3.4: Address the perception of educators as professionals by improving educator employment conditions; by promoting and celebrating educators; and by collaborating with educators on appropriate policy and programming decisions.

Strategy 3.5: Develop incentives to support teachers remaining in the teaching profession and becoming master teachers.

- a) Support an effort leading to more National Board Certifications for teachers.

“Michigan educators have said “Ask Us” before setting education policy. The SBE and Superintendent Whiston have done exactly that by involving us in their work to build a coherent plan to make Michigan a top ten education state once again.”

Gretchen Dziadosz, Executive Director, Michigan Education Association

“Superintendents from around the State of Michigan support the Top 10 in 10 goals and look forward to working in a collaborative manner to ensure this vision is achieved.”

Chris Wigent, Executive Director,
Michigan Association of School Administrators

GLOSSARY

Balanced Calendar

An approach to structuring the school calendar in which breaks in instructional time are spread throughout the year instead of concentrated in a long summer break. An example would include a school with three 60-day academic sessions and 20-day breaks.

Community Eligibility Provision

Community Eligibility is the opportunity for schools with high percentages of low-income children to provide free breakfast and lunch to all students. It increases participation by children in the school meal programs, reduces labor costs for schools, simplifies paperwork for Food Service Directors, removes the stigma from “free” students and increases federal revenues. In short, it allows for a healthier student body and a healthier school meal budget.

State Board of Education
Statement on Senate Bills 713-15

The State Board of Education agrees with the Legislature's concern that Michigan classrooms must be staffed so children can attend school as scheduled. Teachers and families alike should be able to expect that our schools are safe, with conditions that allow children to learn in a healthy environment.

Recent staff sickouts have led to school closures, highlighting issues related to school safety and environmental hazards, and have prompted the Legislature to debate bills aimed at these actions. The State Board of Education requests that the Legislature consider tabling these bills in consideration for an important stated reason behind the teacher actions: school safety.

It is vitally important that the Legislature create a mechanism for teachers and staff across the state to report safety and health concerns to a neutral third party when educators feel that their local district is not able or willing to address their concerns. The Legislature has a duty to ensure that public money is being spent wisely and that our students, staff and teachers can work and learn in a safe and appropriate environment.
