SUBJECT: Michigan Tests for Teacher Certification Opening of Test Centers –
MEMO #COVID-19-067

Test centers for the Michigan Tests for Teacher Certification (MTTC) are re-opening after COVID-19 related closures.

Michigan's Pearson Professional Centers have re-opened and are operating at 50% capacity to ensure safe distancing for test-takers. These centers are located in Ann Arbor, Dearborn, East Lansing, Grand Rapids (two centers), Marquette, Southfield, and Troy. Other test centers operated by colleges, universities, and private companies are also beginning to re-open. To learn about additional safety measures, registration, available test center locations, or more information, visit the MTTC website at <http://www.mttc.nesinc.com/>.

If you have questions about test center availability or test registration, please contact Pearson's customer service team directly at: <https://www.mttc.nesinc.com/Contacts.aspx>.

The Michigan Department of Education will continue to issue temporary one-year teaching certificates to candidates as described in MEMO #COVID-19-040 Notification of Waivers Associated with Teacher Certification and Permits, until further notice.
