

Miguel Torres was born in Saltillo Coahuila Mexico. He was raised in; Coalcoman Michoacan Mexico, Palmview, Texas and Holland, Michigan. He and his family for over 28 years have been Migrant Farm workers in Holland Michigan. Miguel is the first in his family to graduate from High School. He also graduated from Michigan State University with a Bachelors of Science in Family Community & Service with a youth emphasis, and a cognate in Leadership and Management, with two specializations in Latin American Caribbean Studies, and Chicano/Latino Studies.

Miguel now works as Statewide Recruitment and Placement coordinator for Michigan State University High School Equivalency Program (HEP). He is also pursuing his Masters of Public Administration focusing on Non-profit Leadership Administration from Western Michigan University while working full time.