

Actionable Items for Elementary Principals:

- Provide parents with an explanation and several examples of one reading and one math strategy each month that they can use consistently with their children.
- Start the school year with a positive note to parents about their student's performance in school.
- Send personal invitations to parents to attend assemblies that celebrate learning and recognize student achievement.
- Showcase parent engagement participation in school newsletters following each event.