

	Core Value
Principle	Working Definition	Actions
Safety	First/foremost to protect children from incidents of abuse and neglect and to make assurance that the emotional, physical, educational & safety needs of the child are adequately provided.	Face to face contacts Timeliness/scope of contact Risk-vs-Safety
Permanence	Placement/living situation to provide stability & sense of belonging. Outcome to be secured in reasonable time-frame given the age of the child. To endure without fundamental negative impact	1 year Reduction of disruptions Continuity of relationships Concurrent planning
Engagement	The ability to induce a family to participate with the system. A genuine display of commitment & emotional involvement into the process by all players. Beginnings of partnership.	Rapport building Establish trusting relationship Empathy Strength based/Solution Focused
Individualized	Planning & providing interventions & services based upon the unique needs of each family member, child & caregiver. Validating the strengths & success of this specific family.	No cookie cutter approach No menu of service Utilize strengths & culture Needs ID & across life domains.
Child &amp; Family Well Being Family-Centered	Children & Families are interdependent. Parents have the capacity to best provide for their family. Through appropriate planning & effective intervention one's abilities can be enhanced to adequately meet the needs of the child	Family preservation Access to decision making Empower of Family unit Ownership of "the Plan"
Best Interest	Paramount focus on the child's current & future needs. Term with implications of social work values used within the legal process referring to generic needs of the child to support specific action.	Suspension of parenting time Recommendation for termination Placement criterion issues
Collaborative	Interactive process in which people with diverse expertise generate solutions to mutually defined problems. Family driven with cross-systems involvement & natural support inclusion	WA (Wrap Around) F2F (Family to Family) Early on