“Cultural Proficiency: Developing Cultural Competency from the Inside Out”

The Michigan Department of Health and Human Services (MDHHS), Health Disparities Reduction and Minority Health Section (HDRMHS) is pleased to offer a Culturally and Linguistically Appropriate Services (CLAS) workshop entitled ‘Cultural Proficiency: Developing Cultural Competency from the Inside Out’.

All participants must complete the registration form and submit it as an email attachment to jonesv1@michigan.gov. A confirmation of receipt will be emailed to you within one business day after submission.

The learning objectives for the workshops are:

- Learn about a framework for cultural competency development and apply it to personal, organizational and community change
- Learn about developing authentic and sustainable community partnerships across differences
- Explore issues of power, oppression, privilege and change at four levels – personal, interpersonal, institutional and cultural
- Learn about the complexities of race, gender, class and other differences and the connections between health disparities and inequities
- Create a common language related to issues of diversity, equity and social justice
- Explore our identities and memberships in target and non-target groups
- Explore the transition from old-fashioned to modern forms of oppression
- Learn about promising practices and tools to apply a health equity lens to our work
