

Feedback Nutrition Education Staff Training Prenatal/Postpartum Nutrition Module

Our goal is to provide a relevant, engaging, and valuable training experience. Let us know if you like it or add your comments/suggestions for revisions. When evaluating, please consider:

- Content
- Relevancy
- Depth of information
- Layout
- Images
- Length

Section	Like	Comments/ Suggestions for Revisions
Cover/Table of Contents/Objectives
The Importance of Nutrition and Prenatal Care
The Importance of Nutrition
Prenatal Growth and Development/Fetus
Anthropometric Indicators of Nutrition Risk
Nutritional Needs of Pregnancy
Meeting the Daily Mark for Iron
Food Groups/Other
Iodine/Folic Acid/Calcium Needs During Pregnancy
Vitamin/Mineral Supplements
Special Supplementation/ Anemic Women
Special Concerns During Pregnancy
Oral Health/Food Safety/Food Borne Risks
Advice About Eating Fish
Substances that Affect the Pregnant Woman and Fetus
Clinical Indicators of Nutrition Risk
Eating Behaviors of Young Women
Eating Disorders/ Medical Conditions
Other Clinical, Health and Medical Conditions
Complications of Previous Pregnancy
Social Indicators of Nutrition Risk
Postpartum Nutrition and General Guidelines
Postpartum: The Fourth Trimester
Other Comments and Suggestions

Thank You for Your Feedback! Please send completed form to fischert1@michigan.gov.

Date: _____
 Name(s): _____
 Agency: _____