Peer Recovery Coach Certification Training Application

Please print clearly. Applications must be filled out by the applicant. All sections of the form must be completed for the application to be accepted. These instructions explain how to complete the application for the Michigan Certified Peer Recovery Coach training program. The application measures skills and requirements necessary to be a Certified Peer Recovery Coach (CPRC). Applications should be submitted 30 days prior to the date of training.

The application process for peer recovery coach training includes a written application, two letters of reference, current job description, and a peer to peer telephone interview. The letters of reference should be from individuals that can speak to your ability to effectively share your experience as a person in recovery, relate to people, and partner with colleagues. The application process is designed to determine whether the applicant has substantial experience with his or her own recovery and meets the Department of Health and Human Service policy requirements.

Individuals eligible for certification training must:

- Be at least 18 years of age
- Be employed at least 10 hours per week by a licensed Substance Use Disorder Treatment Organization, a PIHP, a Community Mental Health Services Program, or another organization under contract to one or more of the forgoing organizations that provides substance abuse treatment and/or recovery support services
- Have received publicly-funded treatment and recovery services for addiction(s)
- Self-identify as a person who has direct personal experience receiving substance use services
- Have two continuous years in recovery from addiction(s) with experience in navigating treatment services and/or prevention
- Share their recovery story as a tool in helping others
- Have a diagnosis of a substance use condition and/or addiction. Peers focus on shared experience. Individuals with a secondary co-occurring condition may also be eligible. *
- Have experience working on his/her own recovery and an ability to manage his/her own wellness
- Provide completed application and 2 letters of reference forms (The letters of reference should be from individuals that can speak to your ability to effectively share your experience as a person in recovery, relate to people, and partner with colleagues.)

Applicants must be willing to:

- Attend all five days of the in-person training
- Actively participate in discussions and role plays
- Complete and pass the certification exam

*Other training opportunities are available for individuals with lived experience in the following areas:
  Mental health conditions (Peer Support Specialist) Youth (Youth Peer Support) Developmental Disabilities (Peer Mentors) Family (Parent Support Partners) Public Health (Community Health Workers)
