Report on Aging & Adult Services Agency Home-Delivered Meals Waiting Lists

The Aging & Adult Services Agency requires that Home-Delivered Meals be offered as one of its service programs. Following is a table providing data on the number of individuals on the waiting list as of 9/30/2016 and the time period that they were on the waiting list. When individuals are placed on the waiting list for Home Delivered Meals they are also provided with assistance and/or referrals to other services. These include: local non-Area Agency on Aging food assistance programs (e.g., Senior Project FRESH), local food banks, the local Department of Human Services office, MiChoice Waiver Program, service options counseling, and private pay programs.
