Event: Empowered: Women, HIV, and Intimate Partner Violence Video Showing

Date: Wednesday, November 29, 2017 from 10 AM to 12 PM

Address: The Folkert Community Hub-East Entrance, 640 Seminole Road, Muskegon, MI 49441

Contact: Annie Koon at koonanm@mercyhealth.com or Frankie Jones at frankie.jones@mercyhealth.com

Empowered: Women, HIV, and Intimate Partner Violence is a 20-minute video from Greater Than AIDS featuring lawyer, producer, and women's health advocate, Tonya Lewis Lee, in conversation with five inspiring women living with HIV who have experienced intimate partner violence. By sharing their own experiences, the women seek to take away the silent shame many dealing with these issues feel and show there is a way forward. Along with individual profiles of the women, the video is designed to foster and support discussions about the intersection of HIV and intimate partner violence. Watch and discuss along with Annie and Frankie, HIV Prevention Specialists with Mercy Health and Melissa Bushen of Every Women's Place as they explore topics including recognizing the signs of abuse, getting help, finding love again, and living your best life. Breakfast will be served. Registration for event:
