MIDDLE SCHOOL STUDENTS

COLLEGE PREPARATORY CHECKLIST

☐ Make school a priority with good attendance and a positive attitude.

☐ Develop effective study habits.

☐ Keep your grades up.

☐ Challenge yourself! Whenever possible, sign up for the most advanced subjects you are prepared to take, such as in Math, English, etc.

☐ Read often and a range of texts, including fiction and nonfiction books, newspapers, and magazines, to broaden your vocabulary.

☐ If you are struggling, ask for help! Don’t wait until you’ve failed a test or assignment to ask your teacher, mentor or your family members for help in a subject area.

☐ Whenever possible, participate in extracurricular activities, including sports, band, choir, and various clubs. Doing this will give you opportunities to expand your experiences and will help you find out what you might like to participate in when you’re in high school.

☐ Volunteer in your local community or for other civic projects.

☐ Use the summer months to brush up on school subjects. Use study skills books or online resources. Join a reading program at your local library. Don’t let what you learned the previous year slip away, and prepare for the coming school year.

AT THE END OF 8TH GRADE

☐ Meet with your high school guidance counselor to make sure you take the right college preparatory classes during your high school years, as well as the most advanced classes possible, and to find out if there are any other college preparation steps you should be taking.

  - Go to www.michigan.gov/careers, and click on “Career Exploration” under “Students & Parents.”

Talk About Where You Went to College
If you attended college, or are familiar with a local institution, make sure to talk about your experience at or with this college. Fill out “Talking Points about Your College” in the Additional Resources section.

Discuss College Life
Review college newspapers, admission guides, brochures, etc. with your mentee and discuss college life, activities, and admission processes.

Extracurricular Encouragement
Encourage your mentee to participate in extracurricular activities through their middle school years; such as sports, band, drama, student government, community service, and other leadership opportunities. This will help him/her develop a strong pre-college portfolio.

College-Bound Behaviors
Talk with your mentee about developing the good habits and self-discipline they will need to be successful in middle school, high school, and college. This could include improving grades, study and homework habits, school attendance, test-taking skills, and time management. Talk with your mentee about these college-bound behaviors.

Discuss Educational Paths
Help your mentee think about the various forms of post-secondary education (community college, vocational school, 4-year university, etc). Check out the “Where can you learn job-related skills?” document in the Additional Resources section for more information on each path.

Discuss Advanced Classes
Encourage your mentee to take advanced classes whenever possible. They will have more education options, be better prepared for college entrance exams, and college classes. Have your mentee talk to their parent(s)/guardian(s) and counselors about enrolling in such courses and the support needed.
MATCH ACTIVITY IDEAS:
MIDDLE SCHOOL

Virtual Campus Tour
Time: One to two match meetings
Take your mentee on a virtual tour of campuses. Visit the website of a college or university at www.campustours.com. Take virtual tours of other colleges in Michigan and across the country.

College Admissions Application
Time: One match meeting for the application, and check in on progress until goals are met
Find out what colleges your mentee is interested in and print an admissions application for the school or go to www.commonapp.org to print a generic college application. Bring the application to a match meeting and begin filling it out with your mentee. Discuss and set goals to fill in the gaps or to strengthen the application.

College Event Field Trip
Time: One match meeting, several hours
Take your mentee to a college event, e.g., a basketball game, a football game, an art fair, etc. Your program may be able to secure free tickets for these types of events; make sure to ask!

Sports Games
Time: Can be incorporated into one match meeting, or several
Play games and name teams after colleges in Michigan or the mascots of those colleges. If you don’t know the name of the college mascots, look them up with your mentee.

Read a Book
Time: One or more match meetings, depending on length and quantity of books
Read books about individuals who have overcome obstacles and succeeded and/or non-fiction texts about potential career fields. Check out the “Reading Materials: Middle School” section for book suggestions! Discuss and have your mentee create short reports or posters about the books they have read.

Career Scrapbook
Time: Several match meetings
Work with your mentee to create a career notebook/scrapbook. Have them think of 10 possible careers they might be interested in pursuing. Create informational sheets/collages about each career with pictures of individuals doing that job or pictures of something related to the job, along with a brief paragraph about the job responsibilities of a person in the field, information on the type of required career training and how long the training lasts, and the name of a few colleges or universities that provide the training.
Online Personality Test

Time: Match meeting

Have your mentee take a free online personality test, explaining that such tests provide ways to think about future careers. There are no absolutes about what one can or must do. The quizzes are a fun way to get youth thinking about their futures.

- www.kidzworld.com Type “careers” in the search field. The site has two kid-friendly, rather short quizzes, with fun questions.
- www.missouri.edu Search: Career Interests Game. Review this site with your mentee. It’s a little complex, but it provides interesting information about personality types and careers. It’s best suited for older middle school students.

College Fun Collage

Time: One to two match meetings

Create a collage of the fun things you can do in college: study abroad, attend sports events, join a fraternity or sorority, participate in community service, or live in a dorm.

Role Model Study

Time: One to two match meetings

Study the life of a famous individual or a role model with your mentee. Questions to think about could include: What is the person’s occupation? What training did he/she need for that occupation? What characteristics made that individual a success? Ask your mentee why he/she chose that particular individual? How can they follow in the individual’s footsteps?

Job Shadow

Time: Several match meetings to set up and attend the job shadow

Talk with your mentee about the careers they are interested in and help them to find and ask individuals in that field if they would be willing to have you and your mentee shadow them at their jobs.

College Positive Rewards

Time: Extended term, check in with their progress over the months

Look for opportunities to encourage and reward your mentee when he/she does a college positive behavior, e.g., gets good grades, complete a project, or has a leadership moment. Set goals for specific projects and/or grades and reward those goals with college-related items, such as t-shirts, hats, mugs, pennants, key chains, and/or posters.

Career Presentation

Time: Several match meetings

Do research with your mentee on a career he/she may be interested in and host an event for your mentee and their parent(s)/guardian(s), families, counselors, teachers, etc. in which the mentee can give a presentation about their research of a particular career path. Have them dress up as an individual in that career for the presentation event. The research could include information about why they chose the career, the schooling required, which college(s) they might attend and why, what they could accomplish in the field, or individuals who have done something significant in this area.
READING MATERIALS: MIDDLE SCHOOL

Below is a list of books that can be used to support discussions about personal aspirations and careers. The list begins with several fiction books that will work for all age groups, although some of the books are picture–based. Under each book title is the author’s name(s), followed by the publisher’s name and the publication date, unless otherwise noted.

To the following list, you can add any biographical books about individuals from your mentee’s ethnic/cultural groups, individuals who have overcome odds, who have worked to achieve education and/or success in their field, etc. Check with your local public or mentee’s school library for a list of such books or additional career-related books.

Helpful Tips:

Visit MeLCat, the Michigan eLibrary Catalog at http://elibrary.mel.org to locate these materials at your local library!

- Take your mentee to the local library and teach them how to look up and find books or ask a librarian to show you!
- Talk with your mentee about which books they would like to read together. Visit your local library before your next meeting to pick them up or find out if you can take your mentee to the school library to pick up books!

*So You want to be a Writer: How to Write, Get Published, and Maybe Even Make it Big! Vicki Hambleton and Cathleen Greenwood. Beyond Words Publishing, 2001

Today’s Heroes: Ben Carson (A Detroit Native). Gregg Lewis and Deborah S. Lewis. Zonderkidz, 2002

Discovering Careers for Your Future (Computers, Art, Health, Math, etc.—a different book for each field.) Ferguson Publishing, 2000 through present

Note: Humorous book that can be used to promote discussions about good study habits; author/illustrator has an inspiring personal story about being told by one of his art teachers that he could not draw. Other school–related books are available by the same author.

The Value of Education
Time: One to two match meetings
College pays off! With each year of college completed, average annual pay increases by about 10%. Print out the “Value of Education” worksheet, and talk with your mentee about the monthly, annual and working life incomes based on education level. To cover the monthly expenses for how they want to live as an adult, what level of education would they need?

Job Match Worksheet
Time: Match meeting
Print the “Job Match Worksheet” and look through the different jobs on the left hand side and the level of education on the right hand side. Talk about the different careers, especially those they are not familiar with. Then, match each job on the left with the minimum amount of education needed on the right. See the example for Medical Doctor.

Print out the “Looking Into Your Crystal Ball” activity and ask your mentee to imagine it is now 10 years after their high school graduation. How would they describe their lives? Lead them through the activity and have them answer each question. Talk with them about the job chosen in question 2 and the cost of the lifestyle chosen; do they need a college degree?

College Life Word Search
Time: Match meeting
Print out the “College Life Word Search” and work with your mentee to find all of the college related words! Talk with your mentee about the words they were unfamiliar with in the list.
Michigan Community College Match Up
Time: Match meeting
Community college is one pathway to education beyond high school. Community colleges offer many career-focused programs and associates degrees, and can often be less expensive than a 4-year school.
