PUBLIC COMMENT

The public has the right to address the Commission and the Commission welcomes the public's comments. The public may do so in three different ways: (1) written comments which will be entered into the permanent public record for the meeting; (2) speaking live to the Commission at the meeting location; and (3) speaking live to the Commission remotely. Further instruction on each method are listed below.

- (1) Written public comment to the Commission may also be submitted via the Commission's Public Comment Portal, available at www.Michigan-Mapping.org.
- (2) Requests to speak live to the Commission at the meeting venue will be determined on a first-come, first-served basis. Doors and in-person public comment sign-up will open one hour before the meeting start time. Sign-up for in-person public comment will close when the public comment portion of the agenda ends at the meeting.
