- a. Owner/Landlord shall not:
  - i. Evict or otherwise deny assistance to Tenant on the basis or as a direct result of the fact that Tenant is a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking Exception: Owner/Landlord may evict upon showing that an actual and imminent threat to other tenants or those employed at or providing service to the property would be present if Tenant is not evicted. Owner/Landlord must document or otherwise be able to prove the actual and imminent threat based on words, gestures, actions or other indicators. Owner/Landlord may only use eviction in this situation when there are no other actions that could be taken to reduce or eliminate the threat, including, but not limited to, transferring Tenant to a different unit, barring the perpetrator from the property, contacting law enforcement to increase police presence or develop other plans to keep the property safe, or seeking other legal remedies to prevent the perpetrator from acting on a threat. Restrictions predicated on public safety cannot be based on stereotypes, but must be tailored to particularized concerns about individual residents.

- ii. Deny tenancy or occupancy rights solely on the basis of criminal activity directly relating to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking if: (1) the criminal activity is engaged in by a member of the household of the tenant or any guest or other person under the control of the tenant and (2) the tenant or an affiliated individual of the tenant is the victim or threatened victim of such domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking.
  - iii. Construe an incident of actual or threatened domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking as: (1) a serious or repeated violation of the lease by the victim or threatened victim of such incident or (2) good cause for terminating the assistance, tenancy or occupancy rights of the victim or threatened victim of such incident.
- b. When providing notification of eviction to Tenant, Owner/Landlord shall immediately notify Agency so that Agency can provide HUD's notice of occupancy rights under VAWA and certification form to Tenant.
  - c. This Agreement shall not limit Owner/Landlord in complying with a court order regarding (i) the rights or access or control of property, including civil protection orders issued to protect a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking or (ii) the distribution or possession of property among members of a household.
  - d. If Tenant requests VAWA protections from Owner/Landlord, Owner/Landlord will immediately notify Agency. Agency may request documentation from Tenant in accordance with 24 CFR 5.2007 and, if it determines that Tenant qualifies for VAWA protections, Agency and Owner/Landlord will work together to ensure Tenant receives those protections as required under VAWA. Failure by Tenant to provide documentation may result in eviction.
  - e. Any information submitted by Tenant, including the fact that Tenant is a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking shall be maintained in strict confidence. Neither Owner/Landlord nor Agency shall allow any individual in their employ or under contract to have access to confidential information unless explicitly authorized for reasons that specifically call for these individuals to have access under applicable Federal, State or local law. Neither Owner/Landlord or Agency shall disclose such information to any other entity or person unless (i) requested or consented to by Tenant in a time-limited release, (ii) required for use in an eviction proceeding or hearing regarding termination of rental assistance, or (iii) otherwise required by applicable law.
  - f. Consistent with Agency's Emergency Transfer Plan, Tenant may request an emergency transfer if (i) Tenant reasonably believes there is a threat of imminent harm from further violence if the tenant remains within the same dwelling unit or (ii) Tenant was a victim of sexual assault that occurred on the premises within 90 days prior to requesting transfer.

Owner/Landlord may bifurcate its lease with the participant in accordance with 24 CFR 576.409(e).

Owner/Landlord shall include all VAWA protections and requirements in its lease with the participant, unless payment under this agreement consists only of rental arrears.
