

Sample distracted driving school announcements

More than 3,000 distracted drivers crash and die every year. Forget the phone and mind the road. One Text or Call Could Wreck It All.

Dying in a car crash is the ultimate unexcused absence. Don't drive with your phone in your hand. One Text or Call Could Wreck It All.

We want you here tomorrow. And the next day. And the next day. Don't talk or text while driving. One Text or Call Could Wreck It All.

Car crashes are the single leading cause of death for teenagers in the U.S. One of the main causes is distracted driving. Don't talk or text on your phone while you drive. One Text or Call Could Wreck It All.

It's no coincidence that distracted driving and teen traffic deaths are on the rise. Don't drive with your phone in your hand. One Text or Call Could Wreck It All.

Imagine eight empty seats in your classroom. That's how many teenagers die every day in traffic crashes. Keep the classroom full. One Text or Call Could Wreck It All.

Teenagers are four times more likely to die in a car crash than adults. Don't talk or text while you drive. One Text or Call Could Wreck It All.

No call is more important than your life. More than 3,000 distracted drivers crash and die every year. Don't text or talk while driving. One Text or Call Could Wreck It All.

It's better to stay alive than to stay connected. Don't text or talk on your phone while driving. One Text or Call Could Wreck It All.

Nearly 50 percent of teens text while driving, and eight teens die every day in traffic crashes. If we all just realize "One Text or Call Could Wreck It All" we could save many lives.

Keep your mind on the road when you get behind the wheel. Don't drive distracted.

Even little things can be big distractions when you drive. Keep your hands on the wheel and eyes on the road. Don't drive distracted.

The radio, your cell phone, food, even your friends—these can all be distractions while you're driving. Keep your mind on the road when you get behind the wheel.

Eating while you drive can be a bigger disaster than just getting mustard on your shirt. Stay focused on the road when you get behind the wheel.

For every second your eyes aren't on the road, you miss a lot you need to see. Keep your eyes and mind on the road. Don't drive distracted.

If you don't pay attention in class, you might fail. If you don't pay attention when you drive, you might crash. Don't drive distracted.