

The Michigan Association of Vehicle Theft Investigators (MAVTI) grant had some quick results from the Acid Restoration Training held in Houghton Lake on February 8, 2007. Sunny Ponzetti attended the class on the 8th, did an exam of a snow machine with a ground Vehicle Identification Number (VIN) on the 9th, and was able to recover the entire VIN resulting in a stolen ID. We love results like that!