

Southwest Detroit Business Association reports that their video surveillance camera videotaped two young males stealing two vehicles on consecutive days at the same location. The video was able to pick up a description of the two. The video was downloaded to a CD and given to an ATPA-funded Detroit Police officer. This video will be used as evidence in this case, as well as proof that auto theft is a major problem in Detroit.