Floor host

Assist guests with safe and proper use of our active exhibits including ORV rides, fishing, top of tree, bottom of tree, eagle's nest, bridge crossing, bottom of waterfall and shooting range. This position involves standing and walking throughout each shift.

- Time commitment: three-hour shifts; at least two shifts per month
- Training: Orientation, on-the-job, monthly two-hour meetings
- Scheduling: Notified three weeks in advance for six-week periods

Greeter

This is the ultimate “people person” position. Greeters provide a friendly invitation by welcoming and directing guests and exemplifying hospitality on all occasions along with helping them get oriented to the map, the facilities and any special events. Time is also spent walking the OAC looking for ways to help guests. This position involves standing.

- Training: Orientation, on-the-job, monthly two-hour meetings
- Scheduling: Notified three weeks in advance for six-week periods

Special event assistant

Throughout the year, the OAC offers fun and interesting themed events to encourage guests to visit. Volunteers work with various activities geared toward our themed events, such as campfires, campouts, nature crafts, etc. Volunteers may be needed to assist with temporary tattoos, giveaways, costume wearers or registration. Each event has its wish list of specialized assistance. This is a terrific way to be involved without a big commitment of time.

- Time commitment: shifts vary; at least one shift per month
- Training: Orientation, on-the-job
- Scheduling: Notified three weeks in advance for six-week periods

Preschool play area monitor

Assisting guests by overseeing and tidying this area, where younger children play with nature-themed toys, and the children's book corner.
