This Order is intended to serve as a Domestic Relations Order (DRO) by which the Retirant,

Authority, as amended: 1980 PA 300, 1943 PA 240, 1992 PA 234, 2002 PA100

1. The retirement system (the Plan) subject to this Order is as follows:

P. O. Box 30171
Lansing, Michigan 48909-7671

2. The Retirant is _____, date of birth (mm/dd/yyyy) _____; retirement effective date (mm/yyyy) _____; option chosen at retirement _____; whose last known address is:

3. The Former Spouse is _____, date of birth (mm/dd/yyyy) _____; whose last known address is:

4. The Retirant and the Former Spouse were married on (mm/dd/yyyy) _____, and were divorced on (mm/dd/yyyy) _____.

5. Attached to this order, but not filed with the court, are the social security numbers for the Former Spouse and the Retirant.

6. If, at the time of retirement, the Retirant elected a survivor option and designated the Former Spouse as his or her beneficiary, the DRO may be used to void that survivor option. If the survivor option is voided, the Retirant's benefit will revert to a straight life option. A new beneficiary may not be selected. To declare the survivor option null and void, check the box below:

The Plan administrator shall, upon receipt of this Order, negate and declare null and void, the Retirant's election of the _____ survivor option previously filed with the plan administrator, thereby relinquishing all of the Former Spouse's rights to any pension or benefit after the death of the Retirant. Beginning the first month following the presentation of a certified copy of this Order to the Plan administrator, the Retirant's retirement allowance shall revert to a straight life allowance.

7. This assignment of benefits does not require the Plan to provide any type or form of benefit not provided under the Plan. This assignment does not require the Plan to provide increased benefits, determined on the basis of actuarial equivalent value, or the payment of a benefit to the Former Spouse that is required to be paid to another individual under a DRO or EDRO previously accepted by the Plan.
8. The Retirant, the Former Spouse, and the Court intend this Order to be a DRO under the Plan and related laws.

9. If the Administrator of the Plan determines this Order not to be an acceptable DRO, the Retirant and the Former Spouse agree to submit to and request a court of competent jurisdiction to modify the Order to make it a DRO acceptable to the Plan and applicable law.
