

A Special Message

Michigan families may keep in touch with the Children's Special Health Care Services (CSHCS) program for:

- a monthly memo to families of children with special needs
- parent-to-parent support
- information about "Relatively Speaking," the every-two-years weekend event especially for young brothers and sisters of children with special needs
- community and national resources
- transfers toll-free to health departments or to any CSHCS provider
- help with CSHCS enrollment issues
- scholarships for parents to attend health conferences related to their child's special need

Phone the CSHCS Family Phone Line at
1-800-359-3722. The call is free.
