Why do you want to serve on the Michigan Independent Citizens Redistricting Commission?

The basic premise of elective representative democracy is equal representation of every member's viewpoint. Creating voting boundaries with the intention to and/or effect of under-representing selected viewpoints runs counter to that premise. I believe the goal of any process to create voting boundaries is to be as values-neutral as possible, and I would like to assist in creating boundaries that fulfill that goal.

Describe why or how you affiliate with either the Democratic Party, Republican Party, or why you don't affiliate with either.

I have long considered myself a Libertarian, believing that with an education in the facts, each individual should be given as much opportunity as possible to make their own decisions on their actions and how their money is spent. This led to a long period of generally agreeing with Republican fiscal policies and Democratic social policies, giving slightly more weight to fiscal policies. Given the recent decline in fiscal focus by the Republican party, I have transferred much more of my energy and resources to foster social liberties.
