

Application Workshops

Independent Citizens Redistricting Commission for Fair Elections

Interested in learning more about the application to serve on the Independent Citizens Redistricting Commission? Confused about how to apply?

Mark your calendar and attend one of the following initial redistricting application workshops hosted by the Department of State and community partners.

- Workshops will include an overview of the new redistricting process and an opportunity for participants to fill out an application.
- Notaries will be available to complete the notarized signature requirement for each application at no cost.
- Please bring a photo ID to these workshops so that notaries can verify your identity.
