Dear (name):

Don't let your reason for the ride get taken away; get trained and get endorsed.

Without a cycle endorsement on your driver license, you risk getting ticketed and getting your bike towed and impounded when you ride.

The Michigan Rider Education Program (Mi-REP) offers three different license waiver training courses across the state for as little as $50. Whether you're a novice or experienced motorcycle rider, there is a course that fits your needs. Taking a training course can teach new skills and sharpen existing skills. This will help prevent crashes and let you focus on "why" you ride.

Ride free by getting endorsed: find a training course at Michigan.gov/motorcycling
