

The State Tax Commission at their meeting on October 13, 2014 asked that all assessing officers review their personal property accounts and ensure that each physical location has a separate personal property account number, rather than a single personal property account number for multiple physical locations. This will become critically important as we move into 2016 and businesses begin claiming personal property exemptions and those businesses transition to paying the Essential Services Assessment.