

The following table summarizes SMRS' divestment activity from companies engaged in active business operations in state sponsors of terror since the statutes took effect, currently the countries of Iran, Sudan, Syria, and North Korea. Cuba was previously designated as a state sponsor of terror until the United States Secretary of State removed its designation on April 14, 2015, and which took effect on May 29, 2015. As of such effective date, companies engaged in business operations in Cuba are no longer subject to divestment. Any reference to Cuba below relates to SMRS' divestment activity prior to May 29, 2015.
