Federal transportation priorities. Much of this is focused on policies to shift away from automatically expanding highways as the default approach: https://t4america.org/reauthorization/

Latest blog post on increasing federal funding for transit as well, which is a big barrier: https://t4america.org/2021/04/22/senators-hone-in-on-80-20-split-transit-operations-funding-at-banking-hearing/

Smart Growth America's detailed take on the Senate EPW Committee reauthorization bill, which includes some climate analysis: https://t4america.org/2021/05/24/the-good-bad-and-ugly-in-the-senates-new-transportation-proposal/
