

Filing a Complaint

The Bureau of Construction Codes (BCC), Building Trades Section (BTS) does not have jurisdiction over contractual, monetary, or warranty issues, nor does BCC have authority to conduct criminal prosecution.

Filing a complaint with BCC is not your only option. Some disputes are best resolved informally between the consumer and the person or local unit of government you have a complaint with formally through the courts, or by other agencies.

BCC has authority to review and investigate complaints against local governmental code enforcing agencies. Note: BCC can only take action for violations specified in the Stille-DeRossett Hale Single State Construction Code Act, Occupational Code, Skilled Trades Regulation Act, and Administrative Rules.

If code activities for your unit of government are enforced at the local or county level, you should first contact the local enforcing agency to see if the matter can be resolved with them before submitting a complaint to the state. Complaints received by BCC where a local code enforcing agency has jurisdiction over the allegations described in the complaint may be forwarded to the local jurisdiction.

For each of the construction code disciplines (building, electrical, mechanical, and plumbing) there are three (3) levels of jurisdiction (state, county, local). The bureau's Statewide Jurisdiction List shows the enforcing agency for all units of government in Michigan. This list is located at www.michigan.gov/bcc under "Forms & Publications".

- LOCAL (city, township, or village): the unit of government has their own code enforcement program.
- COUNTY: the unit of government receives code enforcement services from a county enforcing agency.
- STATE: the Bureau of Construction Codes is responsible for code enforcement in that unit of government.

In accordance with 1972 PA 230, MCL 125.1514 which states in part, [i]f an enforcing agency refuses to grant an application for a building permit, or if the enforcing agency makes any other decision pursuant or related to this act, or the code, an interested person, or the person's authorized agent, may appeal in writing to the board of appeals. The board of appeals shall hear the appeal and render and file its decision with a statement of reasons for the decision with the enforcing agency from whom the appeal was taken not more than 30 days after submission of the appeal. Failure by the board of appeals to hear an appeal and file a decision within the time limit is a denial of the appeal for purposes of authorizing the institution of an appeal to the commission. A copy of the decision and statement of the reasons for the decision shall be delivered or mailed, before filing, to the party taking the appeal.

MCL 125.1516 states in part that "[a]n interested person, or the interested person's authorized agent, may appeal a decision of a board of appeals to the commission within 10 business days after filing of the decision with the enforcing agency or, in case of an appeal because of failure of a board of appeals to act within the prescribed time, at any time before filing of the decision. An appeal to the commission shall be decided within 30 days after receipt of the appeal by the commission. A copy of the decision and a statement of reasons for the decision shall be sent to the applicant and filed with the affected board of appeals and enforcing agency within 5 business days after the making of the decision.
