

FIRE
SERVICES

Are you currently working in the
Hazardous/Combustible Materials Industry?

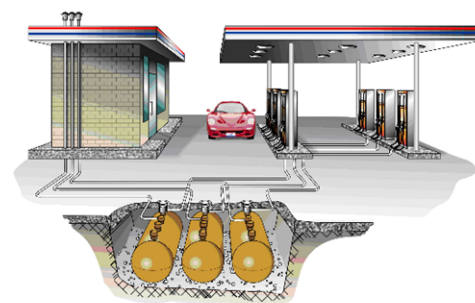

Are you looking for a Career change?

WE NEED YOU!

The Storage Tank Section of the Bureau of Fire
Services is seeking to hire Hazardous Materials
Storage Inspectors (HMSI)

What does a HMSI do?

- Inspect underground storage tank systems
- Inspect above ground storage tank systems
- Make recommendations for regulation compliance
- Write reports
- Communicate with owners/operators
- Review and instruct on current regulations
- Direct work from a home office.
- Travel to sites in a defined geographic location

FIRE
SERVICES

What are the benefits?

- ❖ Paid Training
- ❖ Flexible work schedule; no overnight travel
- ❖ All Tools and Vehicle supplied

Compensation as a State of Michigan employee includes:

- Industry competitive wages and hours
- Accrued vacation and sick leave time
- 13 Paid holidays annually (14 during an election year)
- Paid leave for either parent upon the birth/adoption of a child (up to 12 weeks)
- Short- and Long-term disability
- Comprehensive and affordable medical and dental insurance
- No cost vision insurance
- Professional development opportunities and tuition reimbursement
- Retirement benefits with matching - 401(k) and 457
- Public Service Loan Forgiveness approved employer
- Credit for Military Service

Application Tips for a successful career change:

Create a hiring profile: <https://www.governmentjobs.com/careers/michigan>

Provide detail(s) regarding experience of transferring, handling, and processing of hazardous materials, flammable liquids and gases, combustible liquids and gases including compressed natural gas, liquid and gaseous hydrogen, and propane. Also, any skills or experience working with the above products in manufacturing, distribution, construction, processes, formulations that relate to tank storage and transportation. Hazardous Waste training, Ops level (firefighting) or higher.

For additional information regarding the position(s) and required qualifications please call or text Jeremy Britten at 517-242-7901 or Joe Forro at 517-285-3201.