

PATIENT PROTECTION FORM

Authority: 1978 PA 368

For settings in which participants are treated by either a clinician or participants, provide the following information (responses should apply to all clinical sites used.)

List operator equipment available:
List methods used to ensure sterile techniques:
Describe the provisions available for emergency in the following situations. In describing the provisions, include available facilities, equipment, personnel, and location in relation to the course sites.
Medical Emergencies:	Dental Procedure Emergencies:
Prior to treatment in continuing education activities, indicate how participants are informed of the training situation and the arrangements for follow-up care:
Who is responsible for obtaining informed consent from the patient?
Describe what arrangements are made regarding preoperative examination and preparation:

Describe what arrangements are made to assure postoperative (follow-up) care is provided:

Prior to a course, how do you assess the participant's ability to assimilate instructions and perform the treatment technique(s) being taught?

What arrangements are made concerning liability protection for instructors and participants?

Are participants warned of the hazards of using limited knowledge in integrating new techniques into their practice?

Describe any follow-up contact the sponsor has with participants following courses in which new patient treatment techniques were practiced/learned:

Sponsor Signature

Date