Chair Report

Hamed shared that the board members have been entrusted with responsibility by the people of Michigan and urged members to lead with sympathy, empathy, and a commitment to do what is right. Hamed felt that members must reflect principles that uphold public trust such as fairness, integrity, and respectfulness.

Jones-McBryde shared she attended the Trauma Informed Regulation meeting in New Orleans in February 2026 and advised it was the first time that FSMB had offered this training. It was a great experience.

Department Update

MacIntosh shared that Senate Compact 303 and House Bill 5455 are sitting and still waiting to pass. If not passed by March 28, 2026, Michigan's membership in the Interstate Medical Licensure Compact will expire.

MacIntosh shared that the new board member training can be found on Egress.

MacIntosh reminded members to check their state e-mails.

Smith asked that all members sign their parking affidavits and vouchers to receive reimbursement.
