Respondent is also notified of the opportunity to request a hearing in this matter.

I. BACKGROUND

A. The Respondent

1. Percipience, LLC is a Michigan-organized limited liability company headquartered in New York, New York. Respondent is not registered in any capacity pursuant to the Securities Act, nor has it registered any securities offerings pursuant to the Securities Act.

2. The investigation developed evidence that Respondent offered or sold investment contract securities identified as units of the “Percipience Real Estate Opportunity Fund”, and advertised the offerings on a public-facing website. The

(v) The term includes an investment in a common enterprise with the expectation of profits to be derived primarily from the efforts of a person other than the investor. As used in this subparagraph, a "common enterprise" means an enterprise in which the fortunes of the investor are interwoven with those of either the person offering the investment, a third party, or other investors.

2. Section 102c(a) of the Securities Act, MCL 451.2102c(a) defines "Sale" as follows:

(a) "Sale" includes every contract of sale, contract to sell, or disposition of, a security or interest in a security for value, and "offer to sell" includes every attempt or offer to dispose of, or solicitation of an offer to purchase, a security or interest in a security for value. Both terms include any of the following:

(iii) A sale or offer of a warrant or right to purchase or subscribe to another security of the same or another issuer, and a sale or offer of a security that gives the holder a present or future right or privilege to convert the security into another security of the same or another issuer, including an offer of the other security...

3. Section 301 of the Securities Act, MCL 451.2301, states:
