ABOUT UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE

What is Unemployment Insurance?

Unemployment Insurance (UI) is a program to provide temporary income to workers who have lost their job through no fault of their own, such as layoffs and plant closures.

Who Pays for Unemployment Insurance?

The program is funded through unemployment taxes paid by employers. No money is deducted from your paycheck.

Help Us to Help You

The Unemployment Insurance Agency (UIA) is here to help you through your time of unemployment. To make sure you are paid benefits in a timely manner, you need to provide accurate information, respond to requests for information by the deadline provided, and meet all the requirements for qualifying for benefits. You are required to read and understand the information in this handbook.

For Fastest Service

If you have questions, you may contact us through your Michigan Web Account Manager (MiWAM) account and chat with an agent, schedule an appointment or by calling during normal business hours, 1-866-500-0017. MiWAM is safe, secure and available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. For telephone or to schedule an appointment, visit Michigan.gov/UIA. If you are hearing impaired, TTY service is available at 1-866-366-0004 or a closed captioned virtual meeting can be scheduled.

Michigan Identification Number (MIN)

Once your claim is established you will receive a MIN. For security and privacy when contacting UIA by fax or mail, please use your MIN, not your Social Security number (SSN). Your MIN is the number linked to your UIA records. If you receive a document without a MIN, our data governance policy requires us to use a SSN as part of the ID verification process. When contacting UIA by telephone, you will be asked to provide your full Social Security number.

A Note on Fraud

Detecting and prosecuting cases involving unemployment fraud is priority for Michigan's UI program to ensure funds are available to pay legitimate claims. Claims are audited regularly to ensure benefits were properly paid according to state and federal law. If you received improperly paid benefits, you may have to repay up to 1.5 times the amount of benefits received. Your benefits will be stopped, and any remaining benefits will be lost. You may also be subject to criminal prosecution. If prosecuted, you may be required to pay court costs and fines, face jail time, perform community service or any combination of these (see page 15).

Identity Theft

Identity theft occurs in many different types of situations, including unemployment insurance. Identity theft is when someone uses your personal information such as your name, address or Social Security number to commit fraud such as filing a fake unemployment claim (see page 16).

If you think you may be a victim of identity theft, contact UIA right away to report it. You can report identity theft online at Michigan.gov/UIA. Click the "Report Fraud or Identity Theft" link or you may call the Customer Service line toll free at 1-866-500-0017.

BENEFIT RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

STEPS TO REEMPLOYMENT

Work Registration

To meet the Register for Work requirement, you must complete two steps.

MUST DO STEPS

- ✓ Use your MiLogin account to create your job seeker profile with Pure Michigan Talent Connect
- ✓ Meet with staff from your local Michigan Works! office to verify your profile at least one business day before the first certification. The meeting can be done virtually or in person. Contact your local Michigan Works! office and ask if they provide virtual appointments. Contact Michigan Works! at 1-800-285-WORKS (9675) or find your local Michigan Works! Service Center by clicking on the map at MichiganWorks.org.

The Register for Work requirement is not met until you meet with Michigan Works! Service Center staff, who will verify your job seeker profile and send their verification to the Unemployment Insurance Agency (UIA). You will receive a confirmation email when the process is completed successfully.

The two steps - creating a profile and meeting with Michigan Works! Staff - must be completed and verified at least one business day before you certify for the first time to receive weekly unemployment benefits. If you fail to meet with Michigan Works! Service Center staff, it could prevent you from receiving your unemployment benefits.

Now that you have taken the first step and filed your claim for unemployment benefits, this handbook will provide you with a general overview of important things you need to know about the UI program. It is very important that you read and understand this handbook.

Monetary Determination

After you file for benefits, you will receive Form UIA 1575C, Monetary Determination. This form includes the following:

1. If your claim has been allowed or denied based on the wages you have earned.
2. The weekly benefit rate you are allowed to receive.
3. The number of benefit weeks you are allowed.
4. Base period employer(s) and eligible wages.
5. The separation reason for each employer.
6. Registration and work search requirements.
7. Method selected for receiving correspondence.
8. What week to begin certifying.
9. Protest rights.

A Monetary Determination with this same information is also mailed to your current and most recent employers. Your employer has 10 days from the mail date to respond to the notice. If your claim is a new claim, no payment will be released until after 10 days of the mail date on your Monetary Determination. This may be delayed if there are additional eligibility questions on your claim.

Respond to Agency Requests

If the Agency has questions regarding your claim, you may receive Form UIA 1713, Request for Information.

BENEFIT RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES CONT'D

Inform UIA of Your Work Search Activities

You are required to actively seek work and report at least one work search activity for each week during your bi-weekly certification for benefits. Your benefits will not be paid until you report your work search activity for each week to UIA.

Reporting Your Work Search

- To avoid a delay in payment, enter your work search activity in your Michigan Web Account Manager (MiWAM) account at Michigan.gov/UIA, or
- Certify with Michigan Automated Response Voice Interactive Network (MARVIN) by calling 1-866-638-3993. After completing the automated questions, you must stay on the line to be connected with an UIA agent to provide your work search information for each week. You must provide your work search activity for each week prior to benefits being released.

To avoid a delay in your certification processing by holding for an agent, you can complete your certifications online through your MiWAM account.

The record of activities must include at least the following information:

- Date of Contact. The date of your work search activity must fall within the week ending date (Sunday through Saturday) for each week you claim benefits.
- Activity. Enter the work search activity for the week you are claiming benefits. One is required, but additional can be entered.
- Name of Employer/Organization/Search Engine. Write the name, if known, or the online job search site, or employment service or agency that was contacted. If the search was done online and the employer was not specified, enter the name of the search engine, employment service or employment agency. Enter the Michigan

Works! Agency Service Center that you used for your work search activity.

- Employer Address/Online Location. Enter the location where work was sought, address or online website address. If the contact was made by telephone or fax, enter the phone number used.
- Method of Contact. Enter how contact was made (e.g., online, email, in person, phone, mail, fax, etc.).

You may use the Work Search Activity Worksheet, located in the back of this booklet, to track your work search activities.

To avoid a delay in receiving benefits, your certifications can be completed online through your MiWAM account. .

Work search activities include, but are not limited to:

- Actively contact the employer. (The employer contact must go beyond inquiring about job openings.)
- Submitting applications.
- Checking resources at employment offices.
- Checking job listings at Michigan Works! or MiTalent Connect.
- Attending job fairs or employment workshops.

The following are not considered work search activities:

- Looking online or in the newspaper without making contact with an employer.
- Checking back with a temporary agency for more work.
- Using your current part-time employer as a work contact.
- Seeking or working in self-employment.

Reporting Your Work Search When You Return to Work

It is important to submit your work search for the weeks you were laid off even after you returned to work.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION ABOUT WORK SEARCH

IMPORTANT

- ✓ Your work search is subject to audit and verification.
- ✓ Keep a detailed copy for your records in case you are selected for an audit. UIA may verify your work search at any time.
- ✓ Failing to submit timely and accurate forms may prevent payment of your UI benefits.
- ✓ After collecting 50 percent of your entitled weeks, you must apply for and accept any work that is suitable (see Suitable Work on page 20).
- ✓ It is important to keep your address up-to-date with UIA, so we can contact you if there is a question about your payment.

Michigan Works! Agency Service Centers

Visit your local Michigan Works! Agency (MWA) Service Center to create or update your resume, sharpen your interview skills and more. Go to MichiganWorks.org or call 1-800-285-WORK (9675) for the service center nearest you. You may also be selected to participate in individualized reemployment services to help you become employed again. Reemployment services may include:

- Job search assistance.
- Individualized assessment.
- Job placement services.
- Job search workshops.
- Counseling.
- Job clubs.
- Skills or aptitude testing.
- Resume writing assistance.

If you are selected and fail to participate in a Reemployment Services and Eligibility Assessment, (RESEA) appointment, your eligibility may be affected.

Temporary Layoff

When you filed your new claim or reopened your claim, you were asked about your return-to-work-date. If you are expected to return to full-time work with your employer within 45 days from your claim file or reopened date, your employer can request that you be waived from the work registration and work search requirements. Review your Monetary Determination to see if you have received a waiver. A waiver will also show you the date you must register for work by if you do not return to work as originally expected.

If you are on a temporary layoff from a full-time job (between 45 and 120 days from your last day worked), you may not have to register for work with an MWA to receive unemployment benefits, however, you may be required to seek work (see page 6, Work Search, in this booklet for additional information). Review your Monetary Determination for instructions and find out if this waiver applies. In these circumstances, you are still required to actively look for work.

Union Halls

If you get your job assignment through a union hiring hall, you do not have to register for work. If you only seek work through a union hall, you must follow union hiring hall procedures for checking in for work and report your weekly activity when you certify.

CREATING YOUR ONLINE ACCOUNT

Manage your unemployment account online using the Michigan Web Account Manager (MiWAM). With MiWAM you can:

- Certify for benefits bi-weekly.
- Manage your account 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.
- Change your contact information.
- Respond faster to questions from UIA.
- Submit work search information.
- Submit protests and appeals.

For your convenience you can access both your MiWAM unemployment account and your Pure Michigan Talent Connect (PMTTC) jobseeker account with the same User ID and password by creating a MiLogin account. MiLogin, is a single sign-on system that will allow you to review your unemployment benefit information and see job listings all on one screen. The Talent Dashboard will show you your benefit status, job opportunities based on your PMTC profile, and even provides a to-do list so you don't miss important deadlines.

Before you can create your MiWAM account, you must create a MiLogin account. If you have already created a MiLogin account through another State of Michigan department, log in through your existing MiLogin account and link your MiWAM account. Visit Michigan.gov/UIA. Log in to MiWAM to begin the sign-up process. Once you have completed the MiLogin sign-up process, you will be taken to the MiWAM screen.

For information on how to use MiWAM, see the MiWAM toolkit which can be found at Michigan.gov/UIA and select, “Claimant Homepage”.

KEEP YOUR CONTACT INFORMATION UPDATED

Keep your contact information up to date so that we can notify you of any issues related to your claim or benefit payments.

Go Green

If you choose to ‘Go Green’, you will no longer receive correspondence by regular mail. Instead, it will be sent to your MiWAM account. If you do not specify your method of contact when you create your MiWAM account, it will default to Go Green. You should make it a habit to check your MiWAM account regularly so that you can respond to requested information on time. You can change your Go Green status at any time by logging into your MiWAM account and selecting “Set Go Green Preference”.

If you have questions you may contact us through your MiWAM account or by calling the Customer Service line toll free at 1-866-500-0017.

ELIGIBILITY FOR BENEFITS

To be eligible for unemployment benefits you must be:

- Available for Work. You are willing to accept any full-time work that is suitable, any day of the week and on any shift.
- Able to Work. You are physically and mentally able to do full-time work that you have performed in the past or have been trained for.
- Seeking Work. You are actively looking for full-time work (see Steps to Reemployment on page 5).

- Your total base period wages must equal 1.5 times your highest quarter wages.

Wages to Establish a Claim

In every year there are four calendar quarters. They are:

QTR 1	QTR 2	QTR 3	QTR 4
Jan	Apr	Jul	Oct
Feb	May	Aug	Nov
Mar	Jun	Sep	Dec

STANDARD BASE PERIOD (First four quarters)				LAG QTR	FILE QTR
Must have earned at least $5,328.00 (for 2026)				QTR 4 2025	QTR 1 2026
QTR 4 2024	QTR 1 2025	QTR 2 2025	QTR 3 2025

If you do not meet the wage requirements using the Standard Base Period, you may be able to use the Alternate Base Period (see page 20). UIA automatically looks at your wages paid in the four most recently completed calendar quarters.

To determine if you have enough wages to qualify for benefits, UIA first looks at what is called your Standard Base Period (see page 20). This is a period of four calendar quarters. We look at the wages you were paid in the first four of the last five completed quarters.

- You must have at least one quarter in which you earned a minimum of $5,328.00 (for 2026).
- You must have wages in at least two calendar quarters in the base period.

ALTERNATE BASE PERIOD (Four most recent quarters)					FILE QTR
Must have earned at least $5,328.00 (for 2026)					QTR 1 2026
QTR 4 2024	QTR 1 2025	QTR 2 2025	QTR 3 2025	QTR 4 2025

ELIGIBILITY FOR BENEFITS CONT'D

If you don't meet the wage requirements in either the Standard Base Period or the Alternate Base Period, you may still be able to qualify for benefits using the Alternate Earnings Qualifier. This means:

- You must have wages in at least two calendar quarters in the base period.
- Your total base period wage must be at least 20 times the 2026 State Average Weekly Wage of $1,333.88.

$$($1,333.88 \times 20 = $26,677.60)$$

Weekly Benefit Rate

Your Weekly Benefit Rate (WBR) is determined by your quarterly wages. The amount you receive in unemployment benefits is calculated by multiplying the highest amount of wages paid to you in any base period quarter by 4.1 percent. The maximum benefit payment you can receive is $530 for 2026. See your Monetary Determination for calculations using your information.

Number of Qualifying Weeks

Your number of weeks allowed is determined by multiplying your total base period wages by 43 percent, dividing by your WBR and rounding down to the nearest half week. The maximum number of benefits weeks is 26 and the minimum number of weeks is 14.

Your Separation Reason May Affect Your Eligibility for Benefits

To qualify for benefits, you must have lost your job through no fault of your own.

You have the right to leave a job for any reason at any time, but the reason for the separation will determine if and when you will receive benefits. If you are fired from your job, it is important to specify the reason.

You will be sent fact finding questions and it is important to include as much detailed information as possible. Once we receive all information from you and your employer, you will be sent Form UIA 1302, Notice of Determination, showing whether or not you are eligible.

Other Items that May Affect Your Benefit Amount

Dependents. This includes any family member who received more than half of his/her support from you for at least 90 days before layoff. You can receive an additional $19.33 for each dependent up to the maximum WBR amount. (2026 rate) Up to five dependents. Examples include: your spouse, children, step-children, disabled children, etc. (see Fact Sheet #158, What is a Dependent?).

Taxes. Your UI benefits are taxable by the federal and State of Michigan governments. You may choose to have both taxes withheld from your weekly payment, but you cannot choose only one.

The federal income tax deduction is 10% of the taxable portion and the State of Michigan income tax deduction is 4.25%. The taxable portion is after pension, earnings, fraud penalties, overpayment recoupment, child support, and other exemptions are deducted from your weekly benefit payment.

By the end of January of each year, you will be mailed Form 1099-G, Certain Government Payments, which reports benefits paid to you the previous calendar year. You will need this form to report your income for both the federal and state income tax purposes.

Friend of the Court. Court ordered child support payments can reduce unemployment insurance benefits by up to 65%.

Earnings. Work earned income.

Benefit Overpayment. Occurs when you receive unemployment benefits that you were not entitled to receive.

Restitution. Repayment of unemployment benefits that were paid but you were not entitled to receive.

RECEIVING PAYMENTS

Payment Options

You will receive your unemployment insurance benefit payments electronically. You must select a payment method once you have reviewed the disclosure information. These options are:

- Direct Deposit into your checking or savings account. You will need your bank account number and routing number for this option.
- Debit Card issued by U.S. Bank.

The ReliaCard® is issued by U.S. Bank National Association pursuant to a license from Visa U.S.A. Inc. © 2021 U.S. Bank. Member FDIC.

You may change your selection through your MiWAM account or by calling the Customer Service line. The payment method will default to debit card if no option is chosen (see Fact Sheet #119, Electronic Payment Options).

Bi-Weekly Certifications

You must certify bi-weekly to receive benefits. If you certify online, you can certify anytime during your certification week. If you certify using MARVIN, you must certify on your scheduled certification day and time.

You must certify your eligibility every two weeks to receive payments. Your certification week begins on Sunday and ends on Saturday of each week. The preferred method of certifying is online through your MiWAM account, although certifying by phone is also available (see Bi-Weekly Certification

Questions on page 20). If certifying using MARVIN, your certification day and time are determined based on using the last two digits of your Social Security number (SSN). Find the last two digits of your SSN in the chart below and certify during the corresponding day and time of the day.

If you are unable to certify on your scheduled day and time, you may certify on either Thursday or Friday. Thursdays and Fridays are make-up days.

You can certify:

- Online. Visit Michigan.gov/UIA and log into your MiWAM account. Certification must be completed by 11:59 p.m. on the Saturday of your scheduled reporting week.
- By phone (also known as MARVIN). Call 1-866-638-3993 Monday - Friday, 8:00 a.m. - 4:30 p.m.

Personal Identification Number

If you choose to certify by phone, you will need to set up a secret four-digit Personal Identification Number (PIN). Your PIN serves as your electronic signature for claiming unemployment benefits. You do not need a PIN to claim weeks of unemployment or to get information about your claim if you use MiWAM.

When selecting your PIN, be sure to choose numbers that will be easy for you to remember. Your PIN cannot include more than two identical digits in a row, and your PIN cannot be sequential numbers, such as '1234' or '9876'. If you forget your PIN, you need to reset your PIN, or if you believe someone else knows your PIN, you may reset it by verifying your identity. Visit Michigan.gov/UIA for more information.

IMPORTANT

✓ Your PIN is YOUR SECRET identification number and you are responsible for any certification using your PIN. DO NOT GIVE OUT YOUR PIN TO ANYONE!

How Often Do I Certify for My Benefits?

Look at the Bi-Weekly Certifications section of your Monetary Determination or in your MiWAM account under Account Alerts on the claim to find your first reporting week. Certify every other week (bi-weekly) to continue to claim benefits after your initial reporting week.

If you do not certify during your reporting week, you are late. You must inform UIA of the reason you are late reporting for those weeks by responding to questions about your eligibility. A determination will be issued to let you know which weeks, if any, can be paid. If you do not have good cause for reporting late, you will not be paid for the weeks for which you are reporting through the Saturday before your next reporting week.

For Example: You are scheduled to report by October 17 for the weeks ending October 3 and October 10. You do not report until October 26 without good cause.

You will not be paid for the weeks ending October 3, October 10, and October 17 if you do not have good cause for the late certification.

Initial Payment

Your initial payment will not be released until 10 days from the mail date on the Monetary Determination. This period serves as a protest period for the employer(s) on the claim. If you are eligible and qualified for benefits and you have filed your bi-weekly certifications, your first payment will be automatically issued.

For Example: A claim is filed on Tuesday, July 2 and has an effective date of Sunday, June 30. A Monetary Determination is mailed on Friday, July 5. Your first bi-weekly certification should be completed between Monday, July 15 and Saturday, July 20. Even if you file the certification on Monday, payment cannot be issued until after Monday, July 15 (10 days from the Monetary Determination mail date).

JULY
S	M	T	W	T	F	S
	1	2	3	4	5	6
7	8	9	10	11	12	13
14	15	16	17	18	19	20
21	22	23	24	25	26	27
28	29	30	31

When to Reopen Your Claim

Each time you return to work after filing your original claim and are separated from that employer, if within the same benefit year, you must file an additional claim.

There are certain circumstances under which your claim will close. This includes:

- If you did not certify for benefits within your two scheduled reporting weeks.
- If you waived three weeks of benefits in a row.
- If you stopped certifying for benefits because you returned to work or another reason.

If any of these apply and you later need to resume filing for unemployment benefits, you cannot just contact MiWAM or MARVIN for benefit payments.

You must reopen your claim using MiWAM or by calling 1-866-500-0017. File during the first week for which you are claiming benefits.

If You Made a Mistake Giving Information

If you made a mistake giving information online or over the phone, immediately call the Customer Service line at 1-866-500-0017. By contacting us immediately you can prevent a finding of fraud, though you may have to pay back any benefits you received but you were not entitled.

How to Report Earnings and Other Payments

You may work part-time and collect a partial unemployment benefit payment. The unemployment week begins on Sunday and ends on Saturday even though your employer may have a different pay schedule. Be sure to report the total gross earnings for work you performed in the week you are claiming. The total gross earnings are earnings before any deductions. The total gross earnings must be reported even if you have not received your paycheck for that week.

You must report all of your earnings including payments of:

- Pension/retirement.
- Holiday pay.
- Vacation pay.
- Severance pay.

Failure to correctly report your earnings could result in repayment of the amount of benefits received, plus penalties of up to 1.5 times that amount. Benefits will be stopped, and any remaining benefits will be lost. You may also be subject to criminal prosecution. If prosecuted, you may be required to pay court costs and fines, face jail time, perform community service or any combination of these.

You are only entitled to benefits for the week(s) you were unemployed. Reporting for additional weeks of benefits during the weeks that you performed work could result in repayment of benefits, in addition to penalties and interest.

Flexible Weeks: How to Report Earnings

Flexible week benefits are benefits paid for a seven-day period of unemployment that does not begin on a Sunday. This happens only when you earn as much as, or more than 1.5 times your Weekly Benefit Rate in each of two consecutive calendar weeks, but within those two weeks, there is a period of seven consecutive days or more in which you had not performed any work and had no earnings.

RECEIVING PAYMENTS CONT'D

Neither MiWAM nor MARVIN can be used to claim a flexible week. If you want to claim a flexible week, contact Customer Service 1-866-500-0017.

What Can Stop You from Getting Paid?

The most common reason someone may not receive unemployment benefits has to do with the reason they were separated from their job. If you separate from your last employer, or other employers on your claim, we will gather information from you and your employers. We will make a determination after evaluating the information and applying the state law. You will receive the determination by mail or delivered to your MiWAM account.

If you are disqualified, you may lose some or all of your benefits. Some examples of disqualification are:

- Quitting voluntarily without good cause due to the fault of the employer.
- Being fired for misconduct connected with the work (example: violation of the company's attendance policy or intentional poor job performance).
- Being fired for intoxication while at work.
- Being fired for absence due to conviction and imprisonment.
- Being fired for assault and battery connected with work.

- Being fired for theft.
- Willful destruction of property in connection with work.
- Being fired for testing positive for illegal drugs on a drug test.
- Involvement in a labor dispute.
- Failing to report to work for three consecutive days without notifying the employer (three days, no call/no show).
- Failing to accept an offer of suitable work.
- Failing to notify a temporary help firm within seven days that a temporary work assignment has ended.

OVERPAYMENTS

An overpayment occurs when you receive unemployment benefits that you are not entitled to.

This could occur:

- If you made a mistake when certifying for benefits,
- If you were not able or available to work, or
- You knowingly gave false or misleading information when filing a claim.

If you are overpaid unemployment benefits, you will receive a letter notifying you of the overpayment and how to start the repayment process. If you have been overpaid benefits and are currently employed, contact the UI Benefit Overpayment Collection Unit at 1-866-500-0017 to arrange repayment terms.

If you are still receiving unemployment benefits while you have an overpayment, 50 percent (or 100 percent if fraud was involved) of your weekly unemployment benefits will be taken for repayment (this is called recoupment).

Interest on overpayments is 1% per month. Interest accrues daily and will continue to accrue until the total amount due is paid.

IMPORTANT

Failure to repay benefits improperly received can also result in:

- ✓ Garnishment of your wages.
- ✓ Your federal and State of Michigan income tax refunds can be taken to pay the debt.
- ✓ Lottery winnings you claim in excess of $1,000 may be intercepted.
- ✓ Your claim being referred for criminal prosecution as a felony.
- ✓ You may not be able to receive future benefit payments.

FRAUD

Detecting and prosecuting cases involving unemployment fraud is a priority for Michigan's UI program. Claims are audited regularly to ensure benefits were properly paid according to state and federal law. It is against state law to intentionally make false statements or conceal material information to gain or avoid the payment of benefits. You may be required to repay the amount of benefits received, plus penalties of up to 1.5 times that amount. Benefits will be stopped, and any remaining benefits will be lost. You may also be subject to criminal prosecution. If prosecuted, you may be required to pay court costs and fines, face jail time, perform community service or any combination of these.

Some examples of intentional misrepresentation (fraud) include:

- You find a part-time job and begin working while still collecting benefits but do not report your gross earnings.
- You are employed full time and do not report it to UIA.
- You provided false information about your work search efforts.
- You were ill or injured or on vacation and did not report that you were unable or unavailable to work.
- You did not report other types of pay to UIA such as vacation, holiday or severance pay.

- You had someone else complete your bi-weekly certifications.
- You had someone else file your claim.

UIA can review a payment up to three years after it has been determined that the payment was the result of fraud. It is important to keep your address updated with UIA, so we can contact you to resolve the issue if there is a question about your payment.

IMPORTANT

- ✓ Report suspected fraud online at Michigan.gov/UIA and click on, Report Fraud or Identity Theft; by telephone at 1-866-500-0017, or log into your MiWAM account and click on Report Fraud.

IDENTITY THEFT

Identity theft occurs in many different types of situations, including unemployment insurance. Identity theft is when someone uses your personal information such as your name, address or Social Security number to commit fraud such as filing a fake unemployment claim.

Some signs of identity theft are:

- You attempt to file an unemployment claim, but one already exists for you.
- You receive an IRS statement of benefits collected from Unemployment Insurance.
- You were notified by your employer that a claim for benefits was filed while you were still employed.
- You receive a monetary determination from UIA and the name on the form is not yours.

If you think you may be a victim of identity theft, contact us right away to report it. You can report identity theft online at Michigan.gov/UIA. Click the “Report Fraud or Identity Theft” link or call the Customer Service line at 1-866-500-0017.

IMPORTANT

Ways to protect yourself from becoming a victim of identity theft:

- ✓ Guard your Social Security number. Give out the number only when absolutely necessary.
- ✓ Shred receipts, credit offers, account statements and expired cards to prevent “dumpster divers” from getting your personal information.
- ✓ Review your credit report at least once a year to make sure it doesn’t include accounts that you have not opened.

PROTEST AND APPEAL RIGHTS

If you are found to be disqualified or ineligible, and you disagree with the decision, you have the right to protest a determination or appeal a redetermination.

Protest

A Determination is the first level of UIA decision making. If the Determination is not in your favor, you have the right to protest. A protest must be received within 30 days from the mail date on the Determination. When protesting late, you should include an explanation of why the protest is late. The address and fax number for your protest will be included with the Determination.

Appeal

A Redetermination is issued after a protest is received by UIA. If the Redetermination is not in your favor, you have the right to appeal. The address and fax number for your appeal will be included with the Redetermination. When appealing late, you should include an explanation of why the request for appeal is late.

Appeals are handled by the Michigan Office of Administrative Hearings and Rules (MOAHR). You will receive a Notice of Hearing by mail. MOAHR is not a part of UIA, so all documentation needs to be submitted to the office listed on your Notice of Hearing. After receiving the notice, you will be scheduled for a hearing with an administrative law judge (ALJ). Other interested parties, representatives from UIA and your employer will also receive a notice. Hearings may occur by phone or in person. See your Notice of Hearing for more details.

Advocacy Information

After you appeal your redetermination to the MOAHR, an advocate may be able to assist you at the hearing. This service is free to unemployed workers and employers. However, if the administrative law judge finds that you have committed fraud you must pay the cost of the advocacy services. If you would like the assistance of an advocate, once you have received your Notice of Hearing, call the Advocacy Program at 1-800-638-3994. Some restrictions in service may apply.

Unemployment Insurance Appeals Commission

Once an ALJ has issued a decision, you will receive it by mail. If the decision is not in your favor, you have the right to appeal to the Unemployment Insurance Appeals Commission (UIAC). This appeal is required to be filed in writing and can be received by mail or fax. See your decision issued by the ALJ for the correct address and fax number for your appeal. An appeal of the ALJ's decision must be received by UIAC within 30 days from the mail date of the decision.

Circuit Court

You can appeal a decision from the UIAC to circuit court. However, filing at circuit court does require filing fees. Any costs or fees associated with appealing to the circuit court are then paid by the person requesting the appeal. To be on time, any appeal to a circuit court must be received within 30 days from the mail date on the UIAC decision.

IMPORTANT

While your protest or appeal is ongoing, continue to certify on time using MiWAM or MARVIN during your reporting week(s) until you return to full-time work. This will protect your right to receive benefits if the issue on your claim is settled in your favor. If you win your case, you will only be paid for the weeks you certified on time.

HELPFUL INFORMATION

Crossmatch Programs

Any information you provide when applying or certifying for benefits will be verified through computer matching programs. We conduct crossmatches to prevent and detect identity theft, improper payments, and fraud. These programs look for a variety of factors, including:

- Unemployed workers using fraudulent Social Security numbers and/or driver license numbers.
- Workers collecting unemployment benefits and working at the same time without reporting these earnings.
- Working in another state and collecting Michigan unemployment benefits without reporting these earnings.
- Attempting to file for unemployment benefits while in jail.

You may be contacted if your claim is selected during the crossmatch process. Failure to respond may result in you being considered ineligible for benefits, so it is important that you keep your contact information up to date.

Benefit Accuracy Measurement Program (BAM)

The Benefit Accuracy Measurement program (BAM) is used to determine the integrity, quality and accuracy of UIA decisions and payments in Michigan. Your claim may be randomly selected to be audited as part of this program. If your claim is reviewed, you will be contacted for an in-depth interview. We will ask for work history and work search contacts for a specific week. In most cases, the review will confirm that your claim was processed correctly. However, if you were improperly paid, adjustments will be made, and penalties may be assessed if the overpayment was the result of fraud.

Preserving Benefit Entitlement

If you become totally disabled, you may be able to preserve or “freeze” unused benefits until you are able to work and again become unemployed. To preserve your benefit entitlement, submit a written request within 90 days after your disability begins. If your medical condition prevents you from submitting the request on time, you may submit your written request within 90 days after you become able to file. A person can request a preservation of benefit entitlement if they have been unable to work for up to 3 years.

Trade Act (TAA/TRA)

Trade Adjustment Assistance (TAA) is available to workers who lose their jobs or whose hours of work and wages are reduced as a result of trade with other countries. TAA includes a variety of benefits and services to help unemployed workers find a new job. Workers may be eligible for training, reemployment services and money to move to a new location for a job. Assistance may also include Trade Readjustment Allowances (TRA) which provide a weekly income if your benefits have run out and you are still unemployed.

Contact the TRA Unit at 1-866-500-0017 for more information or visit the UIA Website at Michigan.gov/UIA to view or download Publication UIA 1628Y – Apply for Trade Adjustment Assistance (TAA).

Employer Filed Claims (EFC)

With Employer Filed Claims, employers submit claims for laid-off workers electronically. Even though your employer has filed a claim for you, you must still certify every two weeks through MiWAM or by phone with MARVIN. If you are unemployed for any reason other than lack of work, you must file your own claim during your first week of unemployment. You must also file your own claim if your employer does not participate in EFC.

For questions or concerns about EFC claims – call 1-866-500-0017; TTY call 1-866-366-0004 or schedule a phone, virtual or in person appointment.
