

Michigan Craft Beverage Council FY23 Research Grants

Grantee	Project Title	Amount
Michigan State University	*Investigation of apple fruit rot control and of the diversity of wild yeast populations on hard cider apple varieties with outcomes on fermentation	$31,250
Michigan State University	*Field level late season cluster rot management to increase the crop quality of wine grapes from Michigan vineyards	$48,000
Michigan State University	*Meeting Michigan's Grape and Wine Industry Educational Needs in 2023	$26,500
Michigan State University	Developing Quality Analysis Protocols for Non-Barley Grains Used in Craft Beverages	$36,716
Michigan State University	*New Apple Varieties for MI Hard Cider Production	$29,711
Lakeshore Environmental	Wastewater Characterization of Craft Beverage Industries in Michigan	$64,446
Michigan State University	*Meta Analysis and Diagnostics to Improve Hop and Barley Quality Through Improved Late Season Disease Management	$48,000
Phenology Wine & Cider LLC (DBA Folklor Wine & Cider)	Monitoring Grape Growing Conditions in Charlevoix County	$10,440
Michigan State University	*Evaluation of Corn Varieties for the Michigan Craft Distilling Industry	$38,939
Lakeshore Environmental	Evaluation of Vermifiltration on Winery Wastewater	$15,998
Total		$350,000

*Continuation, years previously funded